MEXICAN MOB CRIES DEATH TO AMERICAN

Assaults Made on United States Citizens in Capital of the Southern Republic.

AMERICAN AMBASSADOR MAKES VIGOROUS PROTEST

The Anti-American Outbreak Began With the Stoning of the Offices of The Mexican Herald---The Mob Is Kept Moving by Forces of Police.

Mexico City, November 9.—Through insults to the American flag and assaults made openly upon American citizens in the streets, the anti-American demonstration which began last night with the stoning of The Mexican Herald offices, developed this afternoon into an affairs of international importance.

A vigorous protest was registered by the American ambassador with the Mexican department of foreign relations, and at the same time the facts were teelgraphed to Washington and instructions asked for.

Attacks Renewed.

Tonight the attacks were renewed. Windows in a dozen American business places were smashed. All about town shutters were hurriedly drawn and establishments closed. Forces of police appeared in the streets and kept the crowds moving.

An attack was made upo nthe plant of El Imparcial, and the mailing and distributing departments on the ground were completely wrecked. For tweaty minutes the mob battered at the heavy doors leading to the editorial and composing rooms above, with heavy timbers, and fired the wreckage. Then the mounted police charged with drawn swords. One of the attackers was run through and killed. The others fled. An alarf, turned in from the office of the paper, brought the department to the scene before the flames gained headway.

The crowd showed bitterness toward

Southern Railway Official Succeeds Parrott.

At Meeting in Savannah Assistant to President Is Elected President of Atlantic Compress Company--Will He Quit the Southern?

Telegrams received in Atlanta by The Constitution yesterday announced the election of J. S. B. Thompson, well-known railroad man, to the presidency of the Atlantic Compress Company to succeed the late Samuel F. Parrett.

The position is a very important one, and requires much time and attention. Mr. Thompson is now assistant to the president of the Southern railway, with headquarters in Atlanta. When asked if he would accept the new office, and if his acceptance would result in his resignation from the Southern railway, Mr. Thompson said he had received no official notification of the election as head of the compress company, and that consequently he was not in a position to talk as yet.

Mr. Thompson has been a leading

VICTORY IN 1912 FOR DEMOCRATS

Presaged by the Result on Last Tuesday.

Senator Bacon Talks of the Election---Effect of the Election on the Political Fortunes of President Taft Is Discussed at Washington.

Washington, November 9.—(Special.) The political revolution of yesterday, which upset the precedents of a generation and changed the political complexion of the house of representatives, prostages a democratic victory in the presidential fight two years hence. Such was the talk in Washington today, where the democratic tidal wave throughout the country was the only subject of discussion.

The people of the nation, angry because of broken promises for genuine tariff revision and resentful over the increased cost of living, have turned toward the minority party. The leaders of democracy in the nation believe the party will measure up to this responsibility.

What Bacon Says.

"We must sit steady in the ship," remarked Senator Bacon, of Georgia, today, in commenting on this phase of the political situation. "The people of the country have turned to the democratic party because of the dissatisfaction with the tariff record of the party in power. As I interpret it the result yesterday is more than anything an expression of the dissatisfaction with the high cost of living. Now that we have the opportunity, the democrats in congress must be wise and cautious so that the positions taken with regard to public questions will merit the approval and confidence of the people. I, for one, believe that the party will measure up to its responsibility.

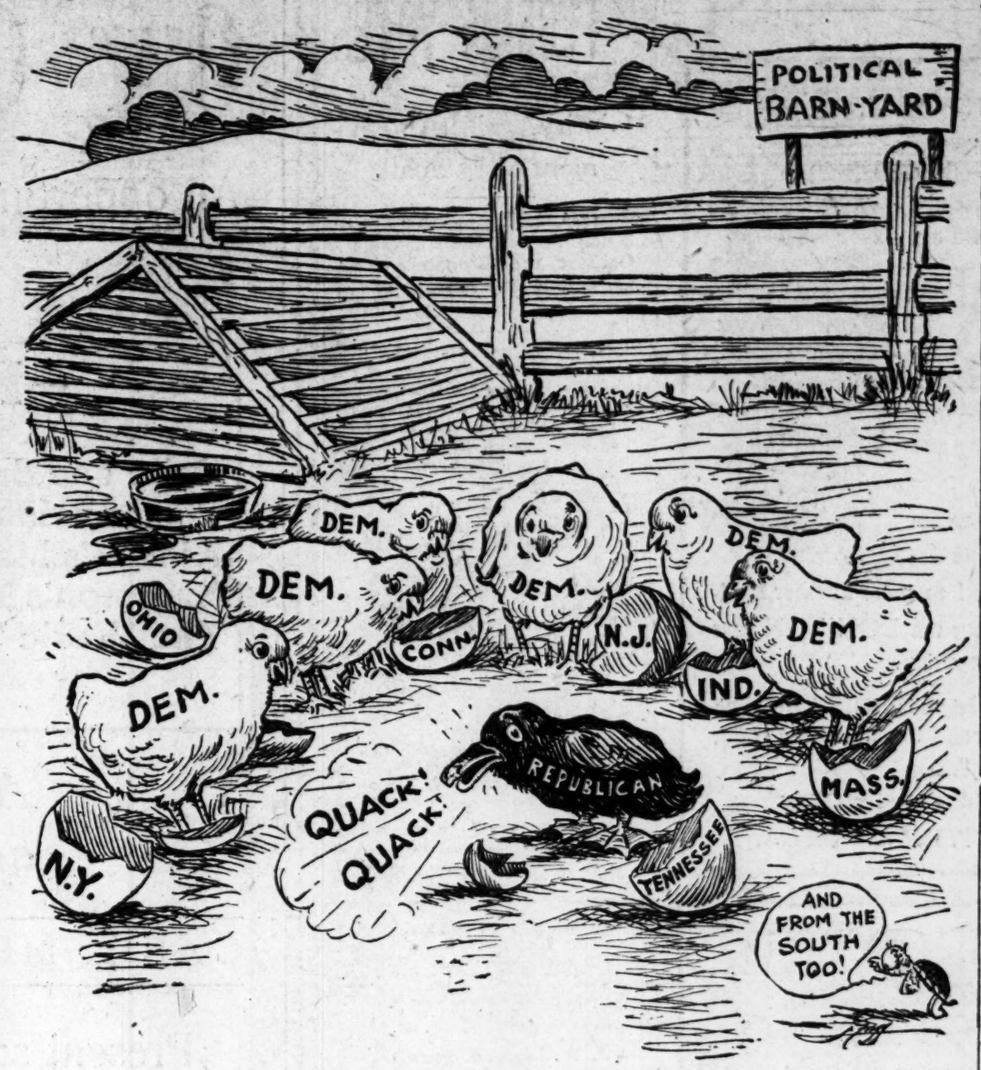

"As for the results of yesterday, they were immensely pleasing to democrats everywhere. They give hope and encouragement for the future."

While the house of representatives will be democratic for the first time in sixteen years, the magniture of the democratic victory in the nation, and particularly the large number of gains made in the senate, afford no little satisfaction to democrats. With a gain of eight senators, the democrats can reasonably expect to come in control of the upper branch of congress two years hence. Acting with the five insurgent senators, who voted against the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, the democrats of the senate will be able to control that body in the next congress.

Taft Returns.

The president returned to the city today from Ohio, where he voted, but he had no word to say about the rout of his party yesterday. It was cabinet

THE LONESOME DUCK.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS, BUT THEY DIDN'T KNOW IT

There were five well-known citizens of Atlanta who were running for congress and didn't know it. They were honored with a good vote in the second ward and are now thinking about taking a trip to Washington, D. C., to claim some sort of recognition as "also ran" congressmen.

The only thing that mars their candidacy was the fact that they were independents and ran against the regular democratic nominee, but as they did not know they were candidates they will probably be forgiven.

The five independent candidates for congress without their knowledge or consent were Hon. Chales H. Girardeau, Hon. Robert A. Broyles, Hon. E. P. Roseborough, Hon. Frank Marshall and Hon. W. R. Shropshire. The vote for these congressional candidates in the second ward was:

Broyles 1, Roseborough 6, Marshall 2, Shropshire 6, and Girardeau 23.

That last number has a regular skidoo look to it, and for that reason and also because the Hon. Charles H. Girardeau got the highest vote of all the independents, the suppers are on him—when they all gather in Washington at the white house.

FULLY $1,000,000 CHANGED HANDS IN NEW YORK

New York, November 9.—This was the day for cashing in on election bets, and one Tammany election captain hired an express wagon—a union express wagon—to do it. When he had made the rounds, he had a full load of new hats and boxes of candies. Down in the financial district and uptown in Peacock Alley and the hotel corridors, it is estimated that fully $1,000,000 changed hands.

One curb broker is said to have handled $350,000. Fred Brooks, the old-time betting commissioner, says he placed $250,000. Another broker made $5,000 in commissions and $20,000 in backing his own judgment. Oddly enough, the heaviest individual loss reported befell a man who bet on Dix, but placed his plurality at 85,000 or better.

CLEAN SWEEP BY DEMOCRATS OVER COUNTRY

Later Returns Only Accentuate Overwhelming Defeat of the Republicans.

MANY SENATORS GAINED BY THE DEMOCRATS

The Senate Will Probably Remain Republican in Name, but the Democrats and Progressive Republicans Will Control.

The political upheaval of Tuesday was followed by a general survey of the field, which disclosed with greater detail and precision just what results had been accomplished.

Later calculations on the national house of representatives, based on complete, but unofficial returns, show that the democrats will have a safe working majority of thirty.

The outcome of the United States senate is not definitely settled. The republicans are assured of sixteen new senators, which, with the thirty-four hold-over senators, gives them a total of fifty. The democrats are assured of fifteen new senators, which, with twenty-five hold-overs, gives them a total of forty. Two senatorships are still in doubt, namely, the successor of the late Mr. Dolliver in Iowa, and Mr. Carter in Montana, where there is a prospect of a tie.

G. O. P. Has Senate.

Total membership, 92; necessary to majority, 47; republicans, 50; democrats, 40; doubtful, 2.

The sixteen republican senators considered assured are from California, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, Nevada, North Dakota two, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The fifteen democratic senators considered assured are from Florida, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Mississippi and West Virginia.

For Governorships.

A summary of the contests for governorships shows the following democratic governors elected with the approximate pluralities:

New York, Dix	66,000
New Jersey, Wilson	30,000
Connecticut, Baldwin	3,500
Massachusetts, Foss	33,000
Ohio, Harmon	60,000
Oklahoma, Cruce	——

DRUGSTORE TIGER TRACKED TO LAIR

R.R. Palmer Arrested and Pleads Guilty.

Plain clothes men from police headquarters raided the drug store of R. R. Palmer, at 75 Decatur street, yesterday afternoon with the expectation of discovering a blind tiger, and made a wholesale discovery.

In the rear of the store and in a room used by the druggist for storage purposes, located in an alley near his place, they found four barrels and four large boxes containing an exclusive brand in bottles varying from quart sized to half pints. Also there was a small quantity of gin.

The contraband stuff was piled high on a dray and hauled to the polie station. A Decatur street crowd stood with mouths gaped as the tiger was being pulled from its lair.

Palmer was placed under arrest. He asked for an immediate trial, stating that he would plead guilty. He was, therfore, brought before Judge Nash R. Broyles, in the police ourt, and arraigned on the charges of violating the city and state prohibition laws. In the city case he was fined $500 or thirty days, and was held in $1,000 bond for trial in the state court.

J. N. Hirsch, a well-known tobacco dealer, appeared at the station shortly after Palmer's trial and paid the city fine. He acompanied the druggist to the Tower, where he bailed him out in the state case.

The officers in the raid were Starnes, Campbell, Wood and Norris. They say that one of Palmer's customers gave them the tip when he himself was arrested on a charge of selling whisky on the street, but the name of this man the officers will not divulge.

According to the raiding officers the drug store had been under suspicion for some time, but they were never able to get a line on the situation because of the exclusive trade.

Palmer has been in business at the place raided for about ten years. He is about 45 years of age, and married. It is given as a reason for his desire for speedy trial the fact that his wife is ill, and he was anxious to be with her.

The raid was made shortly before 3 o'clock. Before 4:30 o'clok, Palmer had been arraigned, fined and bound over and his fine paid and his bond made.

At the same session of police court Judge Broyles fined G. B. Grogan $500 and costs or thirty days on the charge of selling whisky in this prohibition city.

TECH WILL GET HER SHOPS TODAY

Only $2,000 Needed to Complete the Fund.

When the shades of evening gather Thursday, the Georgia School of Technology will have that $15,000, or there will be an excellent reason why not.

Following reports of the committees Wednesday, it was discovered that only $200 is lacking to complete the fund necessary to be raised by popular subscription to secure the appropriation of $35,000 from the state for a new shop building at the Tech.

Gainesville, Ga., November 9.—(Special.)—Declaring the latest play by Thomas Dixon, "The Sins of the Father," unfit to be presented even before an audience of "men only," the city council in Americus today voted to bar the production from appearing in the local opera house on November 15.

The action was taken at the request of a delegation of ministers, whose protest had fruit in the follow-

LIQUOR MONEY PAID DIRECTORS

Carolina Whisky Scandal Being Aired.

Chester, S. C., November 9.—In the trial here of Black and Rawlinson, former directors of the South Carolina state dispensary, and Lee Solomons, a former liquor salesman, for conspiracy to defraud the state, Attorney General Lyon today offered in evidence the "little red book" kept by Henry Samuels, of Chester, a former whisky salesman, as a memorandum of the rebates required by the board from the salesmen. Whether Samuels was one of the alleged conspirators remains undetermined.

John T. Early, of Cincinnati, who represented the Fleischmann liquor interests, declared he paid Director John Black, of Columbia, "money in the form of rebates." He said, "I did so because I thought it would influence him to give me orders. He took the money and I got the orders."

The $2,500 draft made on Early by Black in favor of Henry W. Black was offered in evidence. Early identified it and said that in all he had paid Black between $4,000 and $5,000; that he usually paid him rebates of from $1 to $3 each on every barrel Black bought of him.

Early declared Black had not forced him to pay these rebates. Witness considered he was merely dividing his commissions with Black.

Dividing the Rebates.

C. W. Dudley, of Kentucky, who formerly represented Clarke Brothers & Co., distillers, of Peoria, Ill., said that once Directors Black, Wylie and Rawlinson ordered out 2,600 barrels and 1,600 cases of whisky, on which Dudley paid them $4,000 in rebates. The draft was put in evidence. Dudley said that of this Wylie got $1,200, Rawlinson $1,200 and Black $1,700.

Friday may see the conclusion of the case. At least six attorneys will be heard in argument. The state's case has not been finished.

In the examination of Dudley it was developed that Dudley had applied to John Black for funds upon which Dudley might get across the border into Canada to keep from testifying in this case. He did not get the money. The defense holds that this indicated consciousness of innocence on the part of Black and Rawlinson. Had they been guilty of wrongdoing, the defense claims, they would have been anxious to get Dudley out of the way.

THE MARK IS SET AT 1,000 MEMBERS

Chamber of Commerce Begins Active Campaign.

Encouraged by the addition of half a hundred members within the past few days, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce will today begin a most active campaign for new membership, making a thorough canvass of practically the entire business section of the city. A special committee has been appointed to assist the standing committee on membership and the two plan, with the assistance of other members, to enroll enough names within the next few days to bring the membership of the chamber up to the 1,000 mark.

As a result of the Greater Atlanta Dinner" Tuesday night, thirty new members were added to the chamber's roster and these in addition to those received within the past week or ten days, bring the number recently added up to forty-four, giving the body a membership of practically 700 at the present time. Since the beginning of the year, almost 100 new members have been added to the organization, but almost half this many have been lost through death, removal from the city and resignation. The members of the committee which begin work today state that they will not be satisfied until there are a full 1,000 names on the roll.

Campaign Plan Mapped Out.

At a meeting of the regular membership committee and a special membership campaign committee, held Wednesday afternoon, plans for the campaign were mapped out. Letters will be sent to the chairmen of the various standing committees, containing lists of men to be seen. There will also be special committees for each block and office building in the business portion of the city. Members of these committees will make daily reports to their chairmen, thus putting the leaders in the work in complete touch with the work done from day to day.

That the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce deserves a much larger membership than it now has is the consensus of opinion of all those who are in touch with the work this body is doing. Men from all sections of the country speak in the very highest praise of the organization's efforts and accomplishments, voting it first place in this respect among all those in the south. In spite of this fact, however, it is far smaller in point of numbers than several others in cities even smaller than Atlanta.

The board of trade in Nashville numbers more than 2,000 of the most progressive business men of that city among its members.

In Birmingham, where the chamber of commerce is much younger than in Atlanta, there are almost 1,200 members, while even in Jacksonville, of less than one-half Atlanta's size, the board of trade has almost 150 more members than the local organization can boast.

Doing a Great Work.

That this is not as it should be, is apparent, say the leaders of the local organization. The chamber of commerce, they feel, is undoubtedly doing a great work for the city and deserves the most hearty support and co-operation of all those who have the

THE BUSINESS MEN'S SCIENCE CLUB meets monthly to discuss the duty of business toward the public. HOW'S THAT?

Most associations are organized to boost individual business irrespective of what the public cares about it.

But here is an association of as fine a lot of men as it was ever my pleasure to meet. THE REAL PURPOSE of the association is to put all business on a HIGH PLANE. They are earnest, intelligent men—successful in business, too—yet they want the GOLDEN RULE POLICY and the SQUARE DEAL POLICY to prevail generally.

They have won success by being STRAIGHT and they are determined to do what they can to establish a BUSINESS CODE which will prevent fakirs from thriving in any branch of industry.

They recognize the growing desire throughout the country to put business life on the same plane as private life, and they are going to help the movement along.

It was my privilege to discuss before this body of men the kind of business methods adopted in those newspaper offices where conscience is potent—to point

TRUE BILL AGAINST COX FOUND BY GRAND JURY

The grand jury yesterday returned a true bill against William M. Cox, who, on September 20, shot and killed Dr. J. R. Sewell in the latter's office on Whitehall street and then turned his pistol against himself.

The police, who have been guarding Cox while he lay on his cot in Grady hospital, yesterday turned him over to Sheriff C. W. Mangum, who has appointed a deputy to watch him. As soon as Cox has recovered from his wound he will be taken to the county jail to await his trial.

FOR LOCAL OPTION FLORIDA VOTES

Majority Against Amendment Very Small.

Manager Collins, of the Prohibition Forces, Will Probably Contest the Election—Vote Largest in the History of the State.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 9.—With three-fourths of the vote of the state reported, the majority against the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors in Florida is 3,204. This will probably be increased, rather than diminished, as many of the counties now under prohibition secured through the local option law, which were expected to give heavy majorities ror the amendment, are giving majorities against it.

Pleasant A. Holt, manager of the local option campaign, claims that the amendment will be defeated by 5,200. C. L. Collins, manager of the prohibition campaign, is not giving any figures, but is talking of contesting the election, which is equivalent to a concession of defeat on the face of the returns.

The total vote will probably be the largest in the history of the state, exceeding 60,000. The one-fourth vote not reported is in sections not easily reached by telegraph and will probably not be reported in full for several days.

ATLANTA CHARITIES BUSY SECURING HOLIDAY FUNDS

The holiday season is almost at hand, and individuals interested in good works, and organizations making for the same, have begun their canvass for the necessary funds to carry on their work. In this day and hour, when the spirit of brotherly love seems to touch upon the hearts of the great majority of people, there are the few who do not give their part in some way to help where help is needed. There is no time to stop to reproach who do not give; who do not realize the philosophy "that the gift is to the giver and comes back most to him."

But there is at present a little lack of system about giving and begging which is hard on those who give, and on those who assume the burden of collecting funds for various good objects. The latter at times are inclined to be carried away by their interest, and to be unreasonable in their demands; over-sensitive when refused.

Generosity Abused.

There is the tendency, too, on their part, if they see that a person gives generously to one cause, to think that they should give as generously to all, and to pursue them for that purpose. For example, in the case of a generous Atlanta woman of means, who had indicated by donations that her interest lay in educational and hospital work, she was literally pursued by begging letters, for church entertainments, charity bazaars and personal appeals where she felt no obligation. She was called over the telephone before she was out of bed in the morning; she was called away from the dinner table, and even at social entertainments approached and asked for money.

A Lack of Ethics.

In another case, in the visit here of a wealthy guest from a distance, whose visit had been heralded beforehand, begging letters were sent in such numbers before her arrival her hostess was ashamed to hand her mail on her arrival.

There is no use to refer to the lack of ethics in the latter case, but in the former case—that of the Atlanta lady—more can be said. Though she is rich, and can give, her life should not be made a burden to her, and the fact that she has plainly showed where her interest lies should be considered.

It would seem that only the greatest emergency and an intimacy would warrant a person being asked to subscribe to a thing at a social entertainment or at a public gathering.

How to Reach People.

The best and surest way to reach the people now in the matter of asking money for help is by letter, by literature clearly setting forth the cause and its objects. Not long since, an Atlanta woman, asking money for an institution, was asked some questions about the institution. She could not give one word of accurate information on the subject; could not tell what the money she solicited was for, and, as the person she asked had little to give, and wanted that given in the right direction, he refused to contribute until he could find out more about it.

When people ask money for any purpose nowadays, they should be able to accompany their appeal with a concise business statement; people are getting tired of random giving.

Again, the people who give could protect themselves if they would apply business principles to their giving, by making up their minds where their greatest interest lies, and where they desire to give. Then they could be the better understood and the better protected against the many begging letters.

Business Method.

A young married woman in Atlanta, who gives regularly each year from her income, has two particular causes she gives to: One a directly charitable object—the support of a family stricken with disease; the other an educational scholarship, and with the sum left she pays her membership dues in organization work in which she is interested or in any emergency cases which appeal to her. Outside of that, she refuses to consider any appeals.

There may be individuals who resent her refusals, but at the same time each year the several good causes she chooses to help can rely on her absolutely for certain amounts.

Giving and asking should be on a more systematized basis. It should always be borne in mind that people have a right to give as they please; whether through a cause which appeals to them or to compliment some individual who may be interested in the cause.

A Way to Give.

For those who are not familiar with Atlanta's worthy causes, who still desire to give their share with the contingent of Christian humanity, who feel their obligation to help those who need it, it is always safe to give to Atlanta's splendidly organized and operated Associated Charities, which has been a wonderful influence not only to help the needy, but to stimulate the unworthy poor. It has been a potent factor with doing away with vagrancy in Atlanta—and with street beggars. Out of it have grown institutions which are the best in the city. The Associated Charities works with all the philanthropic institutions in the city, and on its record the giver will find any time he desires it an exact and itemized account of what was done with the money he gave, either in large or small amounts.

(Charles Lamb, on "Oxford in the Vacation.")

I can here play the gentleman, enact the student. To such a one as myself, who has been defrauded in his young years of the sweet food of academic institution, nowhere is so pleasant to while away a few idle weeks as at one or other of the universities. Their vacation, too, at this time of the year, falls in so pat with ours. Here I can take my walks unmolested, and fancy myself of what degree or standing I please. I seem admitted ad eundem. ADMIRAL PHELPS RETIRES NOV. 14

Since 1865 Rear Admiral Thomas S. Phelps has been on the payroll of Uncle Sam. For nearly half a century Admiral Phelps has been before the mast. On November 14 he will retire from the service on account of the age limit. Admiral Phelps is at present commandant of the Mare Island navy yard.

Long Trolley Trip.

A novel vacation trip was described in a recent issue of The Electric Railway Journal. It consisted of an electric railroa dtour from New York to Milwaukee. The trip, except for the use of a boat on the Hudson from Tarrytown to Hudson, and the steam railroad from Fonda to Little Falls, as made entirely by electric cars. The entire distance traveled, including a number of side trips, amounted to 1,986 miles, and the total cost was $33.50. The only drawback to the excursion was the matter of carrying luggage, which could be checked only on certain lines. The advantage of the trolley trip over other modes of travel is that it is cleaner and cheaper, and that it carries one through the heart of towns, so that one can become better acquainted with the country.—Scientific American.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. More than forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood-purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone root and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed.

In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

Though he offers the substitute for a less price you can't afford to experiment with your health. Go where they give you what you ask for without argument.

FAILED TO BREAK THE SOLID SOUTH

No Inroads Upon Democratic Control.

Appeals of Taft and Roosevelt in Dixie Are in Vain—The Election and Its Lessons Studied by Taft and His Cabinet.

Washington, November 9.—The election and its lessons and the pressing forward of the administration's legislative program so as to get it out of the way before the accession of democratic control in congress next year, were among the subjects discussed at a cabinet meeting today.

Featuring the administrative measures will be the plan for meeting second-class mail abuses by requiring magazines—not newspapers—to pay increased postage on their advertising pages sufficient to eliminate postal deficits and warrant establishment of 1-cent postage on first-class mail in the near future. This is Postmaster General Hitchcock's project.

The plan will be urged upon congress at the coming short session, and a number of magazine publishers already have expressed their disposition to co-operate. Congress will be asked to authorize separate weighing of advertising and legitimate reading matter, each publisher certifying to his local postmaster the facts necessary to determine the postage. Action will be urged on other measures.

Taft Wakes Up Cabinet.

President Taft realizes the necessity for getting through all needed administration legislation in the three months' session beginning next month. He called on members of the cabinet today for a statement of the situation in their respective departments, and the matter will be taken up in detail on the president's return from Panama.

Much of the proposed legislation which will be urged upon congress in the president's forthcoming message will be of a progressive character, and it is said here that the prospects are excellent for harmony in the republican ranks.

Interesting as promise to be the events of the short session, the assembling of the new congress and its conduct—with a democratic house and a republican senate, serving under a republican president—will attract far wider attention. The first session of the new congress, which will convene in a little more than a year, is practically committed to tariff revision by reason of yesterday's results. All through the special tariff session at which was passed the Payne-Aldrich bill, the democratic minority contended that insufficient effort was being made to revise the tariff downward.

The important question that is being ask here, at the seat of the general government, therefore, is what will be done about the tariff when the hybrid congress convenes, and it becomes necessary to reconcile differences between chambers of opposite political faiths.

The Tariff.

It is not believed here that the democrats will care to undertake to force tariff revision under a republican president. Yet tariff measures must originate in the house, and inasmuch as the democrats will be in control of that branch and in charge of its convention, it would appear that the taking of the initiative could not be evaded, even if that should be the desire of democratic leaders.

The tariff is one of the questions on which the democrats are almost as badly divided as were the republicans.

So many southern states have adopted the policy of protection, while in other sections where the democracy is strong there remains a sentiment in favor of practical free trade, especially free raw materials, that republicans may now sit back and view with a measure of complacency the spectacle of their long-time enemies locking horns over questions which have broken their own hold upon the government.

No inroads upon democratic control of the "solid south" were made by the republicans. The appeals of both President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt in this respect were in vain and the returns show losses to republicans in the limited number which that party has in the membership of the house from the southern states. There is little doubt that most of the insurgent republicans from Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas have been returned.

WAIT UNTIL MARTIN ARRIVES

FREDERICK TOWNSEND MARTIN

Frederick Townsend Martin, who has assumed the position of censorship of New York's Four Hundred, will arrive home November 7 from London with a trunk full of new tricks for his social following. Mr. Martin has been hard at work in Europe for the past few months studying society and what to do and what not to do. He is hurrying home, so he can start the social folks in this country along the proper lines. It is said Mr. Martin has found some glaring errors in the way the people in the United States have been acting. His news is of such vital importance that no doubt he will be met at the steamship docks by a delegation of his social following. It is still proper to eat with a fork, it is announced, and it is considered bad form t ostep on a train of a woman's dress. Beyond these two points the public will have to wait for the new information gathered by Frederick Townsend.

NEW YORK SENATOR WON BY DEMOCRATS

Political Prophets Guess About the Successor of Depew.

New York, November 9.—With a safe democratic majority assured in the next state legislature which will select a United States senator, political prophets are picking a probable successor to Chauncey M. Depew. Several candidates are expected to seek the position and in the opinion of political observers the race promises to be interesting.

Already the names of four men in New York city have been advanced as having performed party services meriting this reward. They are William F. Sheehan, Judge Alton B. Parker, Edward M. Shepard and John B. Stanchfield. In view of the fact that many of the changes which made democratic control of the legislature possible occurred upstate, it is considered certain that the claims of men residing outside of New York city will be advanced. So far, however, no names of upstate democrats have been mentioned.

Parker and William Sheehan are law partners. The latter is a former speaker of the house and former lieutenant governor. Edward M. Sheppard, of Brooklyn, was the democratic candidate for mayor of New York city in 1901 and was one of the men mentioned prominently for the gubernatorial nomination at the Rochester convention.

John B. Stanchfield was the democratic nominee for governor in 1900 and received the complimentary nomination of his party for United States senator in 1901.

WITHDRAWS HIS CASE AGAINST AUTO DRIVER

M. Z. L. Fuller, distributor for the McFarlan car, who issued a warrant for Ralph Beardsley, and levied on his racer after a collision when both were returning from the Speedway Monday afternoon, has withdrawn the warrant and released the racer.

Mr. Fuller was returning from the races Monday afternoon with some friends when Ralph Beardsley, who won the fourth race in the grand prize race with a Simplex "36," drove one wheel of his car behind a wheel on the Fuller machine, disabling it.

When Beardsley and his friends perceived the damage they had done, Mr. Fuller thought they acted with unbecoming levity, and thereupon swore out a warrant for Beardsley and attached his car, though letting it continue to Savannah, where it was to race. Beardsley could not be found by the bailiff, and left Atlanta without being served with the warrant.

After reaching Savannah he and Mr. Fuller got in communication, when he prevailed upon the latter's good nature so that he withdrew the warrant and levy upon payment for the damage done.

What is your chance among the competing millions of city workers?

No matter how hard you work, the barriers against you are almost impassable. Marketing is so expensive, rent is so high, that most men just make a bare living until they die. There's only one solution for you—turn to farming.

But turn in the right direction. Come to the Gulf Coast the richest region on the map, with the most delightful climate in the world—a section that offers all the conveniences to which you are accustomed—which will supply all your needs and yet leave you with a surplus at the end of the year.

His whole cost of growing, including crates, was 38 cents a bushel. He sold his product f. o. b. at $1.15 a bushel, making a net profit of $370 an acre.

The Gulf Coast has only begun its development; there is plenty of land to be had just like Mr. Pugh bought.

"TROUBLE MEN" HAVE TROUBLE WITH LYNCHED NEGRO'S BODY

Macon, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) The telephone "trouble" man between Americus and Montezuma reports to Macon headquarters a find that brought him no end of alarm.

After various ruses in an effort to get his lines working yesterday he had such poor success that he sent out a man to run the wires to locate the defect.

Near Montezuma the man's eye that had been long on the wires located the body of a negro dangling from a pole tangled in the lines.

He hurried to notify the officers of the law, for it was one of the negroes lynched by a mob for the death of Marshal Bush at Montezuma.

It took hours to remove the wire trouble.

FLEW FOR ALTITUDE; FAILED TO MAKE IT

Hoxsey Tries to Win the $25,000 Prize at Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., November 9.—A beautiful day, with ideal conditions for flight, this afternoon rewarded those who have patiently waited since the formal opening of the Baltimore aviation meet a week ago yesterday. The wind was at no time high enough to interfere with flights. The result was a series of flights totally eclipsing in interest anything yet seen in Baltimore, save Latham's wonderful flight over the city on Monday.

The audience saw in action today every type of aeroplane now on the grounds. Archibald Hoxsey opened the entertainment in a Wright biplane; Hubert Latham showed his Autoinette at its best; Count Jacques de Lesseps and J. Armstrong Drexel were out in their Blerlots, and Willard and Ely showed something of what the Curtiss biplane can do.

There were three cross-country flights to Fort Carroll and return. The fort is a massive granite structure in the Patapsco river, between the entrances to Baltimore's harbor, about 9 miles from the aviation field. Latham made the first flight in 28 minutes 58 seconds. DeLesseps bettered this, his time being 26 minutes 15 seconds. But it remained for Drexel to make the fastest trip, covering the distance in 23 minutes 34 4-5 seconds.

Hoxsey made a flight for altitude in an endeavor to win the $2,500 prize offered by The American and The Star to the first aviator to reach during this meet a height of 10,000 feet, or more, above the earth. He was in the biplane in which Johnstone sailed skyward over 9,700 feet, making a world's record, but today Hoxsey scored only 5,336 feet.

LIVING AND DEAD FOUND TOGETHER

Fifty-one Known Victims In the Colorado Horror.

Delagua, Col., November 9.—Through two openings scarcely 200 yards apart the dead and living were taken from the Delagua mines of the Victor-American Fuel Company at the same time today, but the dead far outnumbered the living. Tonight fifty-one are known to be dead as the result of the explosion yesterday, while eighteen escaped alive.

R. Akayi, a Japanese, after being insensible from the effects of the afterdamp all last night, recovered his senses this morning and found his way to the surface at No. 2 entry. He was dazed and unable to tell through what passage he had come, but was certain that others still lived in the part of the mine he had crossed. The rescue crew followed back from No. 2 entry and soon brought thirteen others to the surface. Akayi was greeted by a salvo of "banzais" by his countrymen as he staggered down the hill. Scarcely had the line of rescued men begun to trickle from No. 2 mine, when carpenters were called to No. 3 entry to make rough stretchers and it became known that thirty-five bodies had been found piled in No. 4 entry. Later other bodies were found in the same section of the mine which brought the total to fifty-one. At 10 o'clock tonight thirty-five bodies had been brought out of the morgue established at the machine shops.

Both living and dead found today were foreigners. Twenty-nine Mexicans were found in one heap. Seven of the department heads of the mine are known to be buried in a cave-in 400 feet long which blocks the main stope. Three shifts are tearing away the debris, but it may be days before the bodies are recovered.

REBATES WERE PAID TO "MEN HIGHER UP"

Sensational Testimony in the South Carolina Liquor Case.

Chester, S. C., November 9.—The feature of today's sessions of the so-called "dispensary graft trials" was the testimony of C. W. Dudley, of Lexington, Ky., and of John T. Early that they had paid rebates or "commissions" to the members of the old state dispensary board. The men on trial are Jodie M. Rawlinson and John Black, former members of the old state dispensary board of directors, and H. Lee Solomons, a liquor house representative. They are charged in the indictment with conspiracy to defraud the state of South Carolina of $133,000.

Early, the first witness, used to represent Fleischman & Co. He testified that he had paid rebates to Wylie and Black. On case goods, he said, he paid $1 per case. He did not keep books on what he paid out, he declared, but according to his recollection it was between $4,000 and $5,000. Part of it, he said, was as rebates, the remainder as a loan.

Dudley, who was the only other witness examined, swore that he had seen Solomons at meetings of the purchasing board. According to Dudley, the rate on case goods was $1 a case.

This money, the witness said, he paid to Wylie on all case goods except those returned. The defense made a strenuous attack on Dudley's testimony, but did not shake it, apparently.

Bank officials were then put up to testify as to business done by John Black and Henry Black, his brother.

The court then adjourned.

The prosecution may close Thursday with the testimony of W. D. Roy, another liquor dealer, who, Wylie has testified, paid rebates in South Carolina.

BLOWS ARE FELT KEENLY BY TAFT

President Silent on Democratic Landslide.

Executive Won't Make Statement Until He Returns From Panama---Taft to Urge Progressive Legislation to Help Fortunes of Party.

Washington, November 9.—Feeling keenly the blows dealt to the great party of which he is the head, President Taft returned to Washington this morning from Cincinnati, where he cast his ballot in a lost cause. He had no comment to make upon the result, and went directly to the white house, where it was stated he probably would not break his silence concerning political affairs until after his return from Panama, whither he starts tomorrow.

Disappointed as is the president at the loss of the house of representatives to the democrats, his political advisors are pinning their hopes to the fact that a three months' session of the present republican majority in both branches of congress is about to begin. It is known that into that brief period the administration intends to crowd as much of its legislative program as there seems to be the remotest chance of enactment.

Much of the proposed legislation which will be urged on congress in the president's forthcoming message will be of a progressive character, and it is said the prospects are excellent for harmony in the republican ranks. An effort will be made in the short session to pass as much progressive legislation as possible because of the effect such measures would have upon the fortunes of the present administration two years hence.

GREAT GAINS MADE BY THE SOCIALISTS

Their Vote in New York State Shows Marked Increase.

New York, November 9.—Marked gains in the socialist vote throughout the state are shown in the returns from yesterday's election. Figures available tonight indicate a total vote for Charles Edward Russell, nominee for governor, of 65,000, which is nearly double the 33,994 vote of 1908. In New York city Russell received 27,330.

Most significant, however, are the increases up-state. Sixty-five cities that gave a vote of 7,570 two years ago show 28,000 this year. In the outlying districts the gains are especially notable. Districts which formerly showed less than ten votes, this year report from 100 to 500.

Among the large cities that show substantial socialist gains are Buffalo, Schenectady, Syracuse and Rochester. In some instances the increases are as high as 500 per cent.

CRISP COUNTY FAIR OPENS IN CORDELE

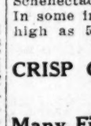

Many Fine Exhibits Are Entered and Active Interest Manifest.

Cordele, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) The courthouse and grounds were alive today with workers arranging exhibits and getting things in readiness for the opening day tomorrow of the county fair, which, to judge from the number of exhibits that have already arrived and their quality, will be even a greater success than has been anticipated. Chairman Bivins says there are a great many more exhibits than he expected, and that many more persons are actively interested than had expressed themselves. In fact, indications are that it will be an ideal show of the county's products.

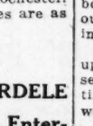

Especially are the ladies to be commended for the active interest and public spirit shown. The program arranged for tomorrow is a most interesting one, and will be attended by large crowds. A parade will be a feature of tomorrow's program.

VICTORY IN 1912 FOR DEMOCRATS

day at the white house, and it was a sad looking and uncommunicative lot of cabinet officers who visited their chief.

At that Mr. Taft comes out of the fray with more prestige than does Mr. Roosevelt, who was discredited in half a dozen states, where he denounced democratic candidates triumphant at the polls. It is well understood by all classes of politicians in Washington that Mr. Roosevelt injected himself in the campaign with the belief that he would lay the foundation for his nomination for the presidency two years hence. Nothing is more certain now than that he will not be the republican nominee for the presidency. Mr. Roosevelt is now a full-fledged member of the Down-and-Out Club. Four years ago Ben Tillman said in speaking of Roosevelt, "What goes up is bound to come down." That your uncle Benjamin was right is conclusively shown in the results of yesterday.

Two Democrats Notable.

Two democrats who emerge from the conflict with great credit to themselves are Woodrow Wilson and Judson Harmon. They loom up as strong presidential possibilities in 1912, and it is now certain that both will have powerful support for the democratic nomination. The speeches of Woodrow Wilson appeal very strongly to progressive thinkers in the democratic party, and should he have a successful career as governor he will be a mighty strong man before the people of the nation.

The far-reaching effects of the election were hardly recognized today, so vast are they in their consequences. The next congress will open under an entirely new regime. Although there is a democratic house and a republican senate, this does not necessarily mean a legislative deadlock. The republican insurgents in the senate, like La Follette, Cummins and Bristow, will absolutely hold the balance of power. They think like democrats and are democrats save for the name of it, so that the democracy will not be hampered in its efforts to put up to the president a reasonable tariff revision program.

Senator Root, in his speech in New York before the election, said in effect that a sweeping democratic victory would be constructed as a repudiation of President Taft and the cabinet officers who went into Ohio, the home state of the president, and urged that the state support the administration by giving a republican victory.

Fortunes of Taft.

What will be the effect of the republican defeat on the political fortunes of President Taft remains to be seen. It makes the question of whether he will be deemed available for renomination loom large in importance. President Taft's friends say that the pendulum is likely to swing back in 1912 and they think that his availability is not shattered.

It may now be expected that presidential politics will speedily begin to become animated. The 1912 pot will soon be boiling.

Champ Clark is likely to be the speaker of the next house, though there will be several candidates, which fact will bring about a contest. Congressman Livingston, of the Atlanta district, who was defeated for renomination, announced himself today as a candidate for election as clerk of the house.

ED HOWELL PUT UP COIN FOR BIG LOSSES AT FAIR

Macon, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) If the young man who was held as a pickpocket by the police last week was all that the police charge, he and his companions who remained beyond the reach of the law got a hard deal before their tangle was undone. Ed Howell was arrested for taking a diamond worth $1,000 from Dennis Cassidy. At police station it was fouid he had on his his person a large roll of money.

Howell offered to secure Cassidy's diamond if Cassidy would secure his release. This was not done at the time, but later when Howell went to trial Cassidy had his diamond, but failed to identify the man. Chief of Police Walter Chapman thought he had a questionable character, and seeing he was about to lose him, told Howell of three other large losses, declaring Howell might as well prepare to put up in jail till these losses were made good. The man immediately put up the money.

Before he was released it was found that he had $2,500 more in money. Chief Chapman told Howell all reported shortages must be paid and the coin came. Howell went away when he was given his liberty without trying to learn whether any one thought he was guilty.

AMERICUS BALKS AT DIXON'S PLAY

ing resolution passed by the city fathers:

"Be it resolved, by the mayor and city council of Americus, and it is hereby resolved by the authority of the same, That a certain theatrical performance, known as 'The Sins of the Father,' billed to play at the opera house in this city on the 15th instant, being, in the judgment of this body, immoral and damaging in its tendencies, and unfit and unsuited to present to a mixed audience, or even to a male audience in the south, shall not for these reasons be allowed to show in this city, and the chief of police is hereby directed to notify the management of the opera house of the passage of this resolution and to see to it that the said play is not presented in this city."

Dixon Roasts Council.

Informed of this action by a telegram from Americus and of the text of the resolutions passed, Thomas Dixon, author and actor, who is here with his company tonight, gave out a picturesque interview as follows:

"It is incredible to me that any town council in America should take such action. My play is the strongest plea for a pure and noble life I have ever made. The best sermon I ever preached in the pulpit or out of it.

"I understand this action was taken at the solicitation of a preacher in Americus who has two deacons on the council. The act is an infamous outrage and the statements he made to these councilmen are false and libelous. I shall at once consult a lawyer and bring suit for slander in the United States circuit court and I shall have these men arrested for criminal libel if possible.

"I can take in good spirit hostile criticisms in the press, but I will not be lied about in this manner by irresponsible fools who attack me with such evident malice. There is not a word or a line in my play that any mother may not permit her daughters to hear with profit. I dare the cowards who have raised this issue to meet me in the open.

"I will submit it to a jury of twelve southern mothers in Macon, Columbus or Atlanta, and if they say my play is immoral or its influence evil I will at once withdraw it from the stage. Everywhere it has been presented intelligent, cultured and refined women have crowded the theater and give the play their warmest indorsement. No woman has yet been found in the south who condemns it.

"I challenge the preacher who made the slanderous statements in Americus to find a single intelligent mother with growing sons and daughters who will condemn this play. In Greenville, S. C., we played yesterday to two great crowds of the best people in Greenville and this morning's Greenville newspapers declared the play taught a great moral lesson.

"I will at once take steps to bring suit against the men who have so wantonly and recklessly slandered me in Americus."

NO NEW NATIONALISM, SAYS TOMLINSON

Birmingahm, Ala., November 9.—(Special.)—Commenting on the election, John W. Tomlinson, member of the democratic national committee, said: "The splendid democratic victory means:

"Conservatism necessary to success in 1912.

"One man domination in party is of the past.

"Rebellion against high cost of living."

WOMAN ELECTED TO CHAMBER

Walter G. Cooper and the other officers of the chamber of commerce are facing this question:

Shall a woman be allowed to be a member of that august body, which never before in its history has allowed other than citizens of the male persuasion to inscribe their names upon its membership roster?

The election of this feminine member was quite inadvertent on the part of the chamber of commerce, of course, but a fullfledged member for all that.

She is Dr. Frances G. Crouch, dental specialist, with offices at 925 Grant building, and just as public-spirited and enterprising as the best male citizen who pays his monthly dues to the chamber of commerce.

And thereby hangs a tale of the active work the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce is doing to make this body one of the biggest and most progressive in the country, and a mighty asset in the growth of Atlanta. To accomplish this, it has been found necessary to secure a larger membership, and every effort has been made to enlist the aid of all energetic business men of the city, in order that the chamber be representative of every part of the city, and the center of live interest in every project advanced for the betterment of Atlanta.

Some weeks ago the chamber of commerce instructed Secretary Cooper to consult the city directory and mail out invitations to those whose names he might see therein to become members of the chamber of commerce.

Mr. Cooper consulted and among the names he discovered was that of Dr. Frances G. Crouch, dental specialist.

By immediate mail Dr. Crouch was invited to join the chamber of commerce, and by return mail Dr. Crouch joined. And a short time later Dr. Crouch's name was considered by the board of directors along with numerous others, and was promptly accepted in full fellowship.

A few days later Dr. Crouch called upon Secretary Cooper in person to see about paying her dues, and to notify him of the committees upon which she would like to serve.

"I Am Already Elected."

"My goodness alive," exclaimed Mr. Cooper, "we don't have lady members of the chamber of commerce."

"Well, I'm already elected a member," countered Dr. Crouch. "The chamber acted upon my application and elected me as a member."

"Heavens and earth," burst with unction from the lips of the secretary, "we didn't know you were a woman. There has never before been a woman elected as a member of the chamber of commerce and it would require a special meeting of the chamber to elect you, and then they might not do it."

"I'm awfully sorry, but what are you going to do about it?" inquired Dr. Crouch.

"Why shouldn't I be a member?" continued the doctor. "I am a business woman and I am vitally interested in every movement looking toward the advancement of the interests of Atlanta, and although it is something new, I see no objection to it."

Dr. Crouch Talks.

"I am not going to cause the chamber of commerce any trouble or embarrassment," said Dr. Crouch Wednesday afternoon. "When I received the invitation to join I supposed they knew I was a woman and I saw no reason why I should not become a member.

"As a matter of fact I think the chamber should either have lady members or have a ladies' auxiliary to work in conjunction with the chamber.

"The improvement of the health of the city and the realization of the dream of the 'City Beautiful' are my hobbies and I think that the ladies of the city who are also interested in these things could be of great assistance to the chamber of commerce in accomplishing them. Of course, if they insist they do not wish any lady members I will withdraw."

Dr. Crouch is a modest little woman who is not disposed to force herself too far into the limelight. She is neither a suffragette nor a frenzied contender for woman's rights, but her faith in what a woman can do to add to the sum total of the world's health, happiness and prosperity is just about as strong and abiding as the rock of Gibraltar.

Comes From Philadelphia.

Dr. Crouch came to Atlanta from her home in Philadelphia three years ago and has built up a splendid practice as a dental specialist. She is a graduate of the Pennsylvania College of Dental Surgery at Philadelphia and is an authority on the care and treatment of the teeth.

She has written several articles on health and she delivered an address on the subject Wednesday night at the regular weekly meeting of the congregation of the Wesley Memorial church.

Secretary Cooper stated Wednesday he does not know what action the board of directors will take, but he thinks her election will be declared void, since the board acted under the misapprehension that Dr. Crouch was a man.

URGE ROGERS FOR JOB HOWARD WILL RESIGN

Governor Brown spent a large portion of his time yesterday morning listening to the arguments of a large delegation of citizens who came to urge the appointment of J. F. Rogers, of Covington, as solicitor general of the Stone Mountain circuit to succeed William Schley Howard, who has been elected member of congress from the fifth congressional district.

Mr. Howard has not tendered his resignation to the governor, but it has been reported that he contemplates resigning at an early date.

Among the friends of Mr. Rogers who came to urge his appointment were the following: L. L. Middlebrooks, Capers Dickson, R. W. Milner, F. D. Ballard, W. P. Pennington, A. D. Meador, Representative Foster, H. D. Terrell, F. M. Hay, Edgar Gunn, Toombs Spearman, Judge E. C. McCalla, J. R. Irwin, T. M. Helms and several others.

New Haven, Conn., November 9.—John Philip Sousa, the bandmaster, was taken to the New Haven hospital, today suffering from what is said to be an attack of malaria. His physicians say his condition is not serious, but that he will be confined to his room for at least a week.

city's best interests at heart. In many cases, it is believed, business men, as progressive and public-spirited as the city affords, are not members of the chamber because the matter has never been brought directly to their attention, and it is for this purpose that the present campaign is to be waged. It is believed that there is no question but that the desired 300 additional members will be secured, but the committees will not be content until they are satisfied that every progressive Atlantan has had the matter called to his attention and has been given, first hand, an opportunity of joining this body which is doing so much for the development of the city.

The matter of increasing the present office force of the organization is one that is being considered at the present time. Secretary Walter G. Cooper has at this time only one assistant and two clerks, while in the vast majority of the offices throughout the country the office force is twice or three times this size, in many cases where the work done is not so heavy as that of the local body. The mass of clerical and other work which devolves upon the secretary and his assistants is rapidly increasing, and at such a rate that it will be impossible, it is said, for the present force to attend to it all in the very near future.

List of New Members.

Following is a complete list of those who have added their names to the chamber of commerce roster of members within the past few days, including those who joined at the "Greater Atlanta dinner:"

"An itching rash broke out on my face and neck, so bad that I scratched it until my face was a mass of raw flesh which kept me awake all night. That night, after washing my face and neck with Cuticura Soap, I applied some Cuticura Ointment and had the first good night's sleep in three months. I used about two lots of Cuticura Soap and Ointment when you could not see a mark on my face or neck. I will gladly recommend the Cuticura Remedies to anybody. Wm. SHOT MAN THREE TIMES AND KILLED HIMSELF

Plumber Attacks Doctor Who Had Been Treating Him.

Chicago, November 9.—Dr. J. Hollinger, a throat specialist, was shot three times today by Louis Martin, a plumber, who came to Chicago from Kansas City, Mo., several months ago. Martin then killed himself. Dr. Hollinger was not fatally wounded.

The plumber was a patient of the specialist since last spring, when an operation was performed in a Chicago hospital.

No motive for the shooting can be learned by the police from the doctor. Mrs. A. C. Boyd, a woman patient, was in the physician's office consulting him, when Martin entered with drawn revolver and began firing. Hollinger fell under the shots, which struck him in the head and arm. Martin, with his last bullet, killed himself.

FIRST ROUND LOST BY STANDARD OIL

Judge M'Call Refuses to Dismiss Suit.

Contention of the Government Outlined by Special Assistant Gregg---Defense Alleged Argument of Counsel and Indictment Were at Variance.

Jackson, Tenn., November 9.—The suit of the United States against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, charged with having illegally accepted freight rate concessions, progressed only so far as the presentation of the prosecution's opening contention today. Then discussion on a technicality began and continued until court was adjourned for the day. Judge John E. McCall, before whom the case is being heard, finally overruled, for the time, a motion of the defense seeking the dismissal of the suit because of what they construed as a fatal variance between the allegations of the indictments and the assertions of W. S. Gregg, special assistant to the attorney general, who argued for the government.

In his argument Mr. Gregg referred to the "transporting" of a car of petroleum from Evansville, Ind., to Birmingham, Ala. The count of the indictment he was citing as illustrative of others, told of the shipment of the car from Whiting, Ind., to Grand Junction, Tenn., and its reconsignment to Birmingham. The fact that it was transported from Evansville, Mr. Gregg explained, was a point the government would seek to prove in support of their contention that the proportionate portion of a 33 cent per 100-pound rate, which holds with regard to shipments from Evansville to Birmingham, should have been charged from Evansville to Grand Junction instead, he asserted, the proportionate of a 13-cent rate quoted on shipments "blind billed" from Whiting to Grand Junction for points beyond was charged.

Motion for Dismissal Entered.

Immediately when he concluded, R. W. Stewart, counsel-in-chief for the oil company, entered a motion seeking the dismissal of the suit. He contended that the declaration of Mr. Gregg was at wide variance with the indictment allegation, thereby nullifying the bill.

Argument between opposing counsel then followed at length, the discussion turning largely as to the construction to be give to the words "shipment" and "transportation."

Judge McCall finally ruled that the motion would not stand at this time, but might be revived after the presentation of evidence. That this point will be vigorously contested later, was indicated by parties to the suit.

The review of the case of the States by Mr. Gregg was in detail. The indictment, which was returned by the federal grand jury four years ago, charges that in 1,524 instances, during the years 1903, 1904 and 1905, the Standard Oil Company violated the Elkins law.

It will be contended by the government, Mr. Gregg explained, that shipments originating at Whiting were "blind billed" to points beyond Grand Junction to gain the advantage of a 13-cent rate to the latter point; that while this tariff was formally filled with the interstate commerce commission, the defendant company "schemed and devised" to keep the rate secret and that when the shipments were given the original carrier, the Chicago Terminal Company, the rate and the amount was omitted and later filled in when the bills were returned by the agent of the Illinois Central railroad at Grand Junction to the auditor of his road at Chicago.

Suit Differs From Chicago Case.

That the suit at issue will differ materially from the allegations of the so-called Chicago case, which resulted in the $29,000,000 fine being imposed by Judge K. M. Landis was announced by counsel for prosecution this afternoon.

It was also announced that a vigorous effort will be made by the defense to secure a court ruling, holding that settlement and not a shipment would constitute grounds for the allegation of a violation of the statute in question.

At the conclusion of today's session, the jury was excused until tomorrow afternoon to permit the attorneys to check up a total of 6,960 documents which are to be offered as exhibits with the different counts of the indictment.

Jury Composed of Farmers.

The case will be heard by a jury composed entirely of residents of the rural districts, of middle age or older. With the exception of one, A. M. Blair, the first man called, who explained that at present he is unemployed, all of the men gave their vocation as farmers, the majority of them emphasizing the fact that they were lifetime tillers of the soil. In all, twenty-three prospective jurors were called, and it required only one hour and a quarter to complete the panel. Seven were excused by the court on personal reasons and four were challenged, the prosecution and defense sharing equally in the exercise of their peremptory privilege.

None were excused by the court for cause.

At the request of the prosecution, witnesses will be excluded from the court room, but adverse to the pleadings of District Attorney Todd, the jury will be permitted to be their own keepers. It was especially sought by the government that they be under the supervision of a court officer throughout the trial. In all, thirty-three witnesses were called by the prosecution, sworn and excluded before the noon recess.

Rules of Procedure Laid Down.

The defense explained that while they have prospective witnesses a-plenty, they will ask for no summons, producing the witnesses of their own volition as they see fit. Other than this, at the morning session the jury was sworn, especial rules of procedure were laid down by the court and preliminary objections of the defense as to the jurisdiction of the court and the regularity of the services secured on the defendant corporation were overruled.

Valdosta, Ga., November 9.—(Special.)—A deal by which the Sparks and Western railroad, the new line from Sparks to Moultrie, passed into the ownership of the Georgia and Florida railroad was made here today and a reorganization of the line effected.

Colonel J. M. Wilkinson, of this city, succeeds J. R. Barfield as president of the road. E. L. Bemiss, of the Georgia and Florida, was elected vice president, and Rutherford Fleet, secretary and treasurer.

Former President Barfield and other officials of the road met Messrs. Bemiss and Wilkinson here today, when a formal transfer of the road was made.

It is understood that the road, which now lacks a few miles of being completed to Moultrie, will be finished at once, and that the new owners will begin the operation of the road from this time.

HOIST UMBRELLAS, DON RAIN COATS

For Local Weather Man Says That Rain Is Now in Sight.

Get out your umbrellas and your raincoats.

The edict has gone forth from the weather office—it will rain Thursday.

And it is about time. But there may be a slip, for the weather man in Washington last night sent out a prediction of fair for this section of the south.

The weather in Atlanta for the past few days has been about the finest ever seen in these parts for November; in fact, it has been too fine to last, hence the rain today.

The warm weather continued through Wednesday and Wednesday night, the thermometer registering as high as 67 degrees at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Whether a cold wave will follow Thursday's rain has not been announced by the local weather bureau. Here's hoping it does not.

"Life in a large and growing city like Atlanta is always more or less exciting," remarked the Gopher, "but when there is an opportunity to put on a few extra thrills by watching daring auto drivers flirt with the Grim Reaper in a neighboring city, that is when I turn to my Shakespeare and lay my index finger on the paragraph which says, 'Lay on, MacDuff, lay on.'

"Hence, and also wherefore, it is 'yours truly' for the automobile races on the grand prize course in Savannah Friday and Saturday. All roads lead that way this week and the highway from the 'Gate City of the South' to the 'City by the Sea' will be crowded with pilgrims."

ON THE WAY TO SAVANNAH.

Anti-American Riot.

Mexico City, November 9.—There was another anti-American demonstration in the streets today growing out of the reports of the lynching of a Mexican, Antonio Rodriguez, at Rock Springs, Texas, November 3. A crowd of 600 persons marched to the municipal palace, giving frequent expression of their opinions of United States citizens.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS WIN IN WISCONSIN

Victor Berger Will Represent Milwaukee in Congress.

Milwaukee, Wis., November 9.—The social democratic party achieved a notable victory in yesterday's election by electing Victor L. Berger to represent Wisconsin in the national congress from the fifth district. Berger will have the distinction of being the first social democrat to sit in congress.

In addition to this, they swept Milwaukee county, electing their county ticket from top to bottom by pluralities ranging from 3,000 to 7,000, the latter being attained by William A. Arnold, the candidate for sheriff.

Added to this, the socialists elected thirteen members to the legislature.

The republicans elected a La Follette legislature and their entire state ticket. Francis E. McGovern, republican, governor-elect, has a plurality estimated at 60,000. The republican state committee claims at least 80 votes in the legislature for La Follette on joint ballot, which will give a safe majority.

Eight republican congressmen, one democrat (the sixth district), one social democrat (the fifth district) were elected. There seems to be some uncertainty as to the re-election of Kuestermann, republican, in the ninth, the incomplete returns denoting a close race with his opponent, Thomas F. Konep, democrat.

Berger won over Henry C. Cochems, "insurgent" republican, and Joseph P. Karney by 2,000. Cochems is the former football player who nominated La Follette for president at the 1908 republican national convention.

The socialists came near making it a double-header congressional victory. William J. Cary, republican, having been elected over Winfield L. Gaylor, social democrat, by only a few hundred votes in the fourth district.

DEER IN THE PARK ZOO WILL HAVE NEW RUNS

Manager Dan Carey Has Provided Shady Dells for the Pretty Animals.

Hereafter the pretty deer out at Grant park will have a whole half acre of grassy land on which to run instead of being penned up on the red and bare hillsides as they have been formerly.

Manager Dan Carey is now having the fences built for the deer run and as soon as the work is completed the pretty little animals will be turned loose in the preserve.

The space has been divided into two fenced-in runs and the deer will be allowed to remain in one but a few weeks in order that the grass may not be entirely destroyed. As soon as the grass is cropped close, the deer will be turned into the second run, where they will remain until the other one has become grassy again.

A nicely-shaded place was chosen for the new runs, and Manager Carey expects the deer to greatly improve in their new surroundings.

BEVERIDGE LOSES IN HOOSIER STATE

Legislature Is Democratic and State Ticket Is Elected.

Indianapolis, Ind., November 9.—While the count is not official, yet sufficient returns are in to show that the next general assembly of Indiana will be democratic on joint ballot by a good working majority, which probably will be from twelve to sixteen votes. This insures a democrat to succeed Senator Beveridge.

Senator Beveridge refuses to concede his defeat and says it may require the official count to determine the result.

With 24 counties of the 92 complete, Gulley, republican, candidate for secretary of state, has overcome the lead of Ellingham, democrat, with 926 votes. If this gain continues, it seems probable that the republican state ticket will be elected.

Senator Beveridge, who had hitherto refused to acknowledge his defeat on reports made to him, tonight admitted that the tide was against him. He wrote the following statement:

"Fortunes of war; it is all right; twelve years of hard work; clean record; I am content."

For the first time in thirteen years the democrats have control of every branch of the state government, the two United States senators and all but one member of the congressional delegation.

Governor Marshall's term has two years to run. The next state senate will be democratic by ten and the house democratic by 22. The program of democratic legislation as announced in the party's platform, includes repeal of the county option law and the substitution of a law providing for city ward and rural township option units.

"Frazzled!"

President Taft needs that little trip to Panama.

It was a democratic Thanksgiving Proclamation.

It wasn't a soft snap for Bob Taylor's fiddle-strings.

At last the Colonel admits something: "I need rest!"

Fortunate that the Contributing Editor has a cheerful Outlook.

Though prices were pretty high, they also felt the blow.

The millionaire aviator will demand even more space than the other kind.

So many authors have to break ice, only to freeze in "the literary swim."

The tariff is assured that the people will never hit it when it's down.

A cordial invitation to high prices to come down and celebrate with us.

"General Confidence was observed strutting around in our midst yesterday."

However, the Taft smile had been canned long before the swoop of the hurricane.

Once upon a time a Man found his Party at Sea, and rocked the Boat to a Frazzle.

The thing to do now is to tie a penpoint on the big stick and tell how it came to pass.

Foraker has enough fire left over to supply a torchlight procession, but they will not need it.

General Prosperity isn't standing at Dixie's gates, but has walked in and made himself at home.

We have popular novels to burn, but for warming purposes they haven't the staying quality of hard coal.

Senator Beveridge was always heard for his much speaking until the Colonel talked to beat him.

If there is any consolation in having killed one more elephant, the Colonel can make the most of it.

They should hasten to stuff the ancient elephant with sawdust and tag it for the Smithsonian Institution.

An English critic admits that "Literature is looking up in America." Of course. The aviation attitude is catching.

The Society for the Prevention of Unnecessary Noise will be powerless to muffle the bray of Champ Clark's mules down Pennsylvania avenue.

"Eat lemons," says Sarah Bernhardt, "if you would keep young." And to think that we have just handed carloads to our republican enemies!

A Georgia 'possum with old-fashioned trimmings is enough to make one add a chorus of Thanksgiving after the parson has invoked a democratic blessing.

Uncle Joe Cannon rises from the wreck with his stogie at the same old angle, and will doubtless be continued in the only office in sight for him—that of Keeper of the Faith.

Closing paragraph of a Watterson editorial upon a similar occasion: "We have beaten them here, we have beaten them there—from Cape Cod to Kalamazoo, from h—l to breakfast!"

THE ROAD TO 1912!

What was accomplished in the recent republican rout is important mainly as it represents opportunities and a foundation for absolute democratic victory in 1912.

In this respect, little more could be asked of the conspiracy of circumstance or of the overturn which gives the nation, at last, an opposition party worthy the term and numerically capable of effective fighting.

In every state and congressional district where democracy was victorious, and in others where republicanism wrung a scant victory, the pegs are set for a democratic congress and a democratic president two years hence.

The fulfillment of destiny rests simply—in the hands of democracy itself.

As it lives up to the obligations and the opportunities of the situation, or is incapable of grasping them—it will shape its own fate.

For the first time in, perhaps, a quarter of a century the conservative business men of the country are lined up with and favorably disposed toward the democratic party.

For the first time in the last half century all those business interests not directly profiting by tariff spoliation have been brought to see the wisdom and the necessity of a sane revision of the tariff. The high protection fetich no longer obsesses the average business man.

Democracy is, therefore, back on old familiar ground—advocacy of an honest tariff, free from special privileges, the ground upon which every victory it has won since the civil war was accomplished.

Upon the ability of democracy to henceforth wage its campaigns from this vantage point rests the result in 1912.

If it cleaves immovably to this one central issue, all will go well.

If it returns to a crazy program of phantoms, nostrums, isms, innovations and bottled moonshine, its doom is written as surely as 1912 rolls around.

Or if, as in the past, bickering, jealousy of leadership, inability to create and enforce discipline, partisan rather than a national viewpoint are permitted to rule—the effect will be as disastrous.

It should not be forgotten that the republicans have just been penalized by the country for the continued offense of party lying, to put it baldly. And the country will tolerate bad faith, inefficiency and feudism no more gracefully from democrats than from republicans.

Nor will the country endure petty jockeying and pinhead policies perpetrated in the name of "party organization and advantage." For it has just given conclusive evidence that today party ties sit lightly, and that men vote not upon terms, but upon conduct.

If Heaven sends its grace upon the democrats and they observe these conditions religiously and with broad minds, the party should enter upon a long and notable era of power, opportunity and, what is better, of service.

For the republicans are tragically demoralized. Taft is no longer available as a leader. If he is again put to the front, republican defeat will be more decisive than any dealt to the democracy in the last two decades. Roosevelt is the party's one hope. And with even him as standard-bearer, the fight would be a tremendous one, with the odds favoring democracy.

Thus the situation lines up, once one turns a deaf ear to the present tumult and the shouting.

The one keynote to the situation is poise to the democrats.

Providence grant it!

CANNON—GAME COCK!

While the democratic tidal wave of Tuesday night was playing hob with republican hopes and landmarks, an enterprising newspaper man interviewed Uncle Joe Cannon.

"I am elected by 6,000," said the aged speaker. "I am a REPUBLICAN. I have kept the faith. I have indorsed and have not apologized for the legislation of this congress."

The country can, now that it has settled the issue of Cannonism, confirm the claim of the old man without reluctance.

Henry Watterson called him, admiringly, a "staunch old reprobate."

That is true. There was nothing mealy-mouthed, whining or indecisive about his stand. Not a note of apology tinged his attitude.

His speeches probably helped swell democratic gains wherever he campaigned, and the things for which he stood unquestionably were largely responsible for democratic victory the country over.

But from first to last, he never whimpered, ducked, compromised or evaded. He "stood pat" in the last ditch. That is more than you can say for nineteen-twentieths of his whilom associates and beneficiaries, who scuttled away from him the moment public disapproval manifested itself, and were readiest to bite the hand that had bestowed favors upon them.

The nation will not tolerate Cannonism or its significance. Nor will it withhold its admiration for the game old cock himself.

LET THE SCHOOLMARMS DANCE.

The press of Virginia is lined up in a squabble that ranges from the twin capes to the West Virginia border.

No, it isn't politics. It's just—schoolmarms.

And the question is—shall schoolmarms be allowed to dance?

Superficially, the topic seems frivolous, but you only have to scan several Virginia papers to see they do not regard the matter from that angle.

The trouble rose in the action of the school board of the town of Pocahontas in prohibiting the women school teachers under its jurisdiction from dancing.

In this contest we side with the school teachers—decidedly.

If any public employee in the entire gamut of the civil service or out of it, from fat policemen down to messenger boys, need the relaxation and the rejuvenation associated with dancing—it is the school teacher, whether in country or city.

They work harder, as a rule, than the average business man and, in country Georgia at least, a large number of them are paid less than the husky day laborers of our cities.

Any fond father who has tried to control one bristling youngster knows the size of the undertaking. Multiply the trouble by any numeral from twenty to sixty and you have a faint inkling of just one part of the job of the woman school teacher. Add to this the homework indispensable from grading of papers, study to keep abreast, etc., and you pile up a case of continual nerve-strain that is nothing short of impressive.

If any class of workers on earth need rest, relaxation and enjoyment, it is the school teachers. By all means they should be permitted to dance to their heart's content. More than that, the little town of Pocahontas would have done far better if, at the public expense, it had decided to get up a dancing party occasionally for its overworked and underpaid teachers.

Square dances, round dances, the Merry Widow waltz, the hobble-skirt prance, the picture-hat "fade away"—let the teachers who want to dance pick out any they will, or all, and dance the tire from their muscles and the cobwebs from their heads.

Their work will be the better for it.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA"

"It Flewed Back So."

"I ain't got much time ter fool 'roun' wid politics," said Brother Dickey, "ez times is hard enough ter make me work fer a livin'; but I wants ter ax you ter take down dis li'l' song I'm gwine ter sing you, an' see ef it don't fit de situation. Now hear me:—

"Whar, oh, whar will de Big Stick go?
It sho' hit hard, but it flewed back so!
It landed fur, an' it landed nigh,
But de kickin' gun throwed de hunter high
Over de mountain dat's next de sky!

You never has knowed ol' Trouble ter hold his groun' ef he happened ter see Joy comin' roun' de corner wid a banjer under his arm.

A Song of Life.

Don't let this word be the final word—the sum of your life-work provin':
"He kept the saw in the log all right, but he didn't keep it movin'!"

The time is brief
From sun to moon;
Make it as glad
As a hurrah-tune!

Don't let this word at the last be heard—like grief on the night-wind sighin':
"The airship bright was in his sight, but he wasn't much at flyin'!"

Oh, the time is brief
From sun to moon:
Make it as glad
As a hurrah-tune!

Why One Man Growled.

"Some folks are just natural-born growlers," says The Billville Banner. "The other day, when a hurricane swept a certain citizen's house entirely away, we decided that for once in his life he had the best excuse ever for doing the growling act, and we were not surprised when we caught him at it. But, when we tendered our sympathy, he said, ruefully:

"'I'm not at all sorry about the house. What I'm growling about is that an earthquake didn't come at the same time and swallow the land the house was on. They've just raised the taxes on me!'"

The Contented One.

If the blizzard lands me
Closer to the sky,
Too poor to buy an airship,
'Twill teach me how to fly.

An' if no place is waitin'—
No welcome in the blue,
Why, then, I'll come a-tumblin',
Which is more than prices do!

* * * * *

No Joy in Sight.

"You ought to be very happy—it's been such a prosperous year?"

"That's just what worryin' me," said the Solemn One. "I've got to go off and buy a railroad to haul the Prosperity!"

The Candid One.

"I ran for the office," says an ex-candidate in The Adams Enterprise, "because the office looked good to me and could not be induced to save me the trouble of running. Some of my optimistic friends tried to persuade me that the office was hot on my track, but I knew from the first that I shouldn't have to climb a tree to escape it, and it looked better to pay it the compliment of making an effort to get it."

Burns' Cottage.

(Atlanta, Ga.—Cornerstone laid by the Atlanta Burns Club, November 5, 1910.)

I.

Here, henceforth, will be holy ground,
A consecrated spot,
A shrine for pilgrims, far renowned,
For here, in true similitude,
Will stand, as though at Ayr it stood,
The lowly peasant cot,
Beneath whose roof, one golden morn,
Burns, the world's best loved bard, was born.

II.

Here will his loyal lovers meet,
Upon his natal day,
To lay their love gifts at his feet,
To listen to his matchless lays,
In speech and song to sound his praise,
To crown his brow with bay,
And hail, each heart with pride aflame,
The starlike splendor of his name.

III.

Great son of Fame! Crowned King of Song!
Show, then, thy heavenly powers,
Descend in spirit, join the throng
That meet to keep thy memory green;
Sit in their midst, felt, though unseen,
And grace the festal hours;
Stay with them, 'till dawn's golden gleam,
Dispels the glamour of their dream.

Norman Park Rebuilding.

Moultrie, Ga., November 9.—(Special.)—The little town of Norman Park, which was practically destroyed by fire some days ago, has recovered from the shock of disaster, and is rebuilding on a larger scale than before. An entire block was swept clear, and a number of heavy losers carried no insurance. However, contracts have been awarded to G. W. Milligan, a Moultrie contractor, to replace every building destroyed with elegant pressed brick business blocks. The new structures will be ready for occupancy about December 20.

SENATOR ELKINS TAKEN TO WASHINGTON

The West Virginia Man Is in Bad Condition.

Elkins, W. Va., November 9.—Comfortably placed in the private car of President Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, Senator Stephen B. Elkins was taken to Washington today. He was accompanied by Dr. Golden, his family physician, and will arrive at the capital early tomorrow.

Senator Elkins has not improved during the past few weeks, as his family expected, and it was the desire of his doctors that he be nearer the hospitals of Washington and Baltimore should an operation be necessary. It is stated here that the mysterious disease from which he is suffering is something more than mere exhaustion, and an operation may be necessary.

JUDGE BROYLES GIVEN OVATION BY FRIENDS

Says His Election Means That People Want the Law Enforced.

Scores of friends and admirers, immediately after the adjournment of police court yesterday morning, pressed about Judge Nash R. Broyles to congratulate him over his victory at the polls Tuesday, when he defeated Malvern Hill for recorder by a majority of 262 votes.

"I wish to thank all of my friends who came to my support at the polls Tuesday and nominated me for recorder," said Judge Broyles, in speaking of the election to a representative of The Constitution.

"Since the first primary, when my plurality was nearly 1,700 votes over the next highest man, I was confident of what the sentiment of the people was in reference to the place, and the fact that my majority was so small was brought about through the overconfidence of some of my friends who thought I would win without a fight.

"My election means that the people have come out for the enforcement of the law, and to the best of my ability I shall endeavor to preside over the recorder's court for the next four years fearlessly and at the same time fairly and sanely in an effort to check crime and the violation of the city's ordinances."

NINE HOUSES BURNED IN GIRARD, ALA., FIRE

Dangerous Blaze Checked Just in Time to Save the Town.

Columbus, Ga., November 9.—(Special.)—Three stores and six dwellings were destroyed in an early morning fire in Girard, Ala., and what was rapidly developing into an extensive conflagration, was checked only by the use of dynamite. Most of the property was owned by R. E. Kavanaugh and W. M. Becker, of Columbus. The origin of the blaze is a mystery. A few months ago fire made a clean sweep of the stores on the same street.

WILL OF ECKERT BEING CONTESTED

Charge of Undue Influence Is Made by Younger Son.

New York, November 9.—Charges that "fraud and undue influence" induced Thomas T. Eckert, former head of the Western Union Telegraph Company, to bequeath the bulk of his $3,000,000 estate to his elder son, Thomas T. Eckert, Jr., are made by James C. Eckert, the younger son, in proceedings bgun today to set aside the will. It also alleged that General Eckert was of unsound mind when he drew up the document.

James C. Eckert, under the will, is to receive $50,000 outright and a life interest in an additional $100,000. In filing the contest, he places this in jeopardy, for the will provides that any beneficiary who takes such action is to forfeit his interest.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO ESTABLISH COLLEGE

Committee Actively at Work Looking Toward Founding of Institution.

Griffin, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) The recent state convention of the Christian church of Georgia took steps looking to the establishment of a college in Georgia. President T. E. Patterson, of this city, was authorized to appoint a committee to investigate the matter and report to tht meeting of the state board in Atlanta on November 25. He has appointed on this committee, Rev. George F. Cuthrell, of Rome; W. H. Roper, of Macon; T. B. Hicks, of Dublin, and C. V. LeCraw, of Atlanta. These appointments were made in Griffin today and each committeeman notified of his duties.

The proposed college, when established, will rank with the best literary colleges of the state. While it is to have a theological department, this will be a college for the general education of young men and women in the liberal arts and science departments. It is proposed to raise permanent endowment funds of at least $50,000, and probably $100,000 to provide an income that will insure permanency of the institution and then ask for bids of the various localities suitable for a site, and thus increase the value of the school. It is thought that Griffin, Dublin, Valdosta, Winder, Columbus, Tallapoosa and probably other cities will be asked to bid for its location. Those in charge of this undertaking are thoroughly in earnest and expect to have the college opened by September, 1911.

HELP MOTHERS TO WORK AND KEEP THEIR BABIES

Sheltering Arms Doing a Great Work for the Mothers of the City.

The ladies of the Sheltering Arms Association have sent out to the relief committee of each charity organization, each church, and each public relief official of the city the following letter.

They wish the public at large to know what this association is doing to help working mothers to keep their children and support them in their own homes, rather than give them up to orphans' homes, or for adoption.

"Dear Sir—The ladies of the Sheltering Arms, desiring to help working mothers with young children to support, call your attention to the work of their day nurseries.

"We maintain four day nurseries, that are under the direction of capable Christian helpers, while the ladies of the association give a great deal of their personal supervision to the work. Children, from small infants to those ten years of age, are received. Those old enough are sent to the public schools, and return to the nursery at the close of school, where they remain till their mother comes for them at night. There is a kindergarten for the smaller children in each day nursery building.

"We serve a substantial midday meal to the children, and they receive careful Christian training.

"Our nurseries are growing rapidly, and there is an increasing demand for others. We have recently opened two new ones, thus making four in all.

"They are located as follows:

"No. 1. Osgood Sanders day nursery, Marietta and Walton streets; committee in charge, Sheltering Arms. Phone M. 2766-J. Mrs. W. S. Elkin, president.

"No. 2. John Barclay day nursery, Exposition Mills, Jefferson and Chestnut streets; committee in charge, Barclay Mission Teachers, phone Main 4179-J.

"No. 3. Cornelia Moore day nursery, 55 Garibaldi street, near Woolen Mills; committee in charge, Old-Fashioned Women, phone West 1072-J.

"No. 4. Whittier Mills day nursery, Whittier Mills, on river car line; committee in charge, Sheltering Arms, phone Main 5519-J.

"We hope that you will keep these locations in mind, and use these nurseries in disposing of your needy cases.

"Frequently by having these mothers move near to one of our homes, we can help them to help themselves, by caring for their children while they are employed, and thus save them from being charity cases.

"This organization feels that there is no reason why any mother, who is able to work, should give up her children to orphan homes or for adoption when we stand ready to help her keep them and support them in her own home.

Very respectfully,

MOTOR CAR DRIVERS HELD WITHOUT BOND

Two Men Who Run Down Pedestrian to Answer to the Charge of Murder.

New Orleans, November 9.—For the first time in Louisiana, bail was refused today to defendants charged with running down by automobile of a pedestrian.

William H. Hoffman, a chauffeur, and Fred Goodyear, a passenger in Hoffman's automobile at the time the machine struck and killed John Kelly several days ago, were held without bond in the first city criminal court this afternoon.

A charge of murder has been preferred against them.

This action follows the declaration of the district attorney that parties responsible for all automobile accidents will be vigorously prosecuted.

DEMAND THE REMOVAL OF OLD LIQUOR SIGNS

Woman's Christian Temperance Union Objects to Signs Remaining in City.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is now making war on the old liquor signs which still decorate or disfigurate some of the walls in the city.

Mrs. Kate Lee Reeves, secretary of the union, has sent to The Constitution the following communication in regard to these objectionable signs:

"Will the citizens of our city permit the liquor signs that exist in public places to remain?

"The Woman's Christian Temperance Union says no.

"On last Thursday evening, at their meeting held in Trinity church, after quite a discussion on this subject, the following resolutions were adopted:

"'Whereas, we were informed by the city authorities that permits to defile the walls of our city would not be granted to liquor dealers after their present permits had expired.

"'Whereas, the time has expired for the old signs to be removed, as it has been about one year since we asked for the removal of the old signs, and were notified that the time limit would not expire for some time.

"'Whereas, we believe this is calculated to confirm the oft-repeated statement that "prohibition does not prohibit," proves conclusively that the officers authorized to enforce said law are not doing their duty. Therefore be it

"'Resolved, That the Atlanta Frances Willard Woman's Christian Temperance Union most respectfully calls the attention of our "city fathers" to the new liquor signs on the walls, the fences and the out-of-the-way places, and respectfully ask them to have these signs removed at once.

"'Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the mayor and council, and also a copy published in each of the three city papers.'"

Babe's Body Found.

Marietta, Ga., November 9.—(Special.)—Tuesday afternoon W. R. Chandler, who operates a gin in Marietta, found the body of a dead baby under the gin. The child had been there, evidently, some months, as nothing remained but the bones. The coroner's jury decided, from all appearances, that it was a newly-born negro baby. It was securely wrapped in clothing, pillows, and covered with show papers and placed some distance back under the gin. There is no clew to its identity.

REVISE THE TARIFF, SAYS CHAMP CLARK

And the Missouri Leader Favors Revision Downward.

Bowling Green, Mo., November 9.—Downward revision of the tariff at once is the pledge made for the new democratic house of representatives by Champ Clark, congressman from the ninth district, who is a candidate for the speakership.

"The first and greatest proposition the democrats should stand for is a reduction in the tariff to a revenue basis," said Mr. Clark. "I would reduce it scientifically and gradually, and put into it a sliding scale much like there was in the tariff bill of 1833.

"Democrats now have a golden opportunity for constructive statesmanship, and should seize it and demonstrate once more their fitness for legislating wisely and patriotically."

O'SHIELDS-JACKSON CASE GOES TO HIGHER COURT

Defendants Are Bound Over at the Request of Jackson's Attorney.

On motion of Attorney Burton Smith, counsel for Mrs. Maude Jackson and Henry T. O'Shields, Judge Nash R. Broyles yesterday afternoon bound both over to the state court under $100 bond to answer the charge of adultery.

Mr. Smith stated to the court that he wished both O'Shields and Mrs. Jackson to have a trial before a jury for the purpose of having the scandal thoroughly investigated in justice to Mr. Jackson, whose firm contention is that Mrs. Jackson is above suspicion and O'Shields a faithful friend.

Neither O'Shields nor Mrs. Jackson were present when Mr. Smith appeared before Judge Broyles.

Mrs. Jackson lives with her husband, a well-known locomotive engineer, at 333 Central avenue. The neighbors caused cases to be made against Mrs. Jackson and O'Shields, a plumber, and ex-candidate for sheriff, and gave sensational testimony in police court about seeing O'Shields frequently in the home at late hours while Jackson was away.

The cases were left open on the police court docket, and Mrs. Jackson was instructed to get another home. The action of Attorney Smith in having both Mrs. Jackson and O'Shields to answer the immoral charge in the state court was done simply for the purpose of a thorough investigation before a jury, the defendants being confident of complete vindication.

BREATHITT JAILER SHOT AND KILLED

Kentucky's Bloody County Adds Another Crime to Her Records.

Jackson, Ky., November 9.—Wesley Turner, jailer of Breathitt county, was shot and instantly killed on the streets near the jail last night by "Bad Jake" Noble, a prominent figure in the Hargis-Cockrell feuds. Noble approached Turner as the latter was walking along the street in company with several friends and asked one of Turner's companions to to let him see his pistol.

The man complied and Noble wheeled about and shot Turner with the weapon.

He then fled and has not been apprehended.

No cause for the killing is known. Turner and Noble had been close friends.

MAYOR GAYNOR WARS ON EXPRESS STRIKERS

The Operation of Unlicensed Drivers Is Forbidden.

New York, November 9.—Mayor Gaynor issued two characteristic letters tonight, which promise to bring the strike of express company employees to a head tomorrow. Briefly, he forbids the operation of wagons by unlicensed drivers, thus eliminating the strike-breakers upon which the companies have depended. Mayor Wittpenn, of Jersey City, has already taken this stand, and a test case is now in the Jersey City courts.

More than 10,000 drivers and helpers, augmented by most of the taxicab chauffeurs in New York, are still on strike, and rioting is unabated. John Williams, state commissioner of labor, is due here from Albany tomorrow, and, with Mayor Gaynor's action and a threat of state intervention, it is hoped that a settlement will be reached.

No decision has been reached by the coal drivers on the question of a sympathetic strike, nor has a general strike been ordered. A mass meeting to consider the advisability of a general strike has been postponed indefinitely.

NEW CONNECTICUT GOVERNOR ONCE SPOKE TO GEORGIA BAR

Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, governor-elect of Connecticut, under whose leadership the democrats swept the Nutmeg State, is well known in Georgia legal circles.

About ten years ago he was the speaker at the annual meeting of the Georgia Bar Association at Warm Springs, his subject being "The Power of the Executive." He declared that the power of the president of the United States was almost as great as that of the czar of Russia.

Incidentally, the Georgia lawyers had the laugh on the judge—he was then chief justice of the state—about the condition of the weather.

Burton Smith, who was the chairman of the executive committee, had as an extra inducement toward bringing the distinguished jurist to Georgia, written him:

"We promise you three days of cool and delightful weather."

The judge came, and spoke and conquered—but the weather balked at helping Mr. Smith out in his promise. It was sunny, and sunnier, and sunniest, and the sun was hotter, and hotter and hottest. In fact, those three days Judge Baldwin passed in Georgia were just about the hottest of the year.

BIT HER ON FACE AND ARM, SAYS WIFE OF PREACHER

Charging that her preacher-husband "caught her in his arms" and bit her on the face and arm, Mrs. Julia H. Bailey has filed suit for divorce against J. J. Bailey.

She says that she was married on December 21, 1898; but that about six months afterward her husband became indifferent; that he would fly into a rage, grab her by the arms, and shake her severely. She says that this continued all during her married life, but that she countenanced such treatment simply because her husband was a preacher, and that she has endeavored to live with him simply to save her reputation.

On one occasion, she says, her husband grabbed her, shook her, and threw her into a closet with such force that she fell to the floor, sustaining severe bruises; and on November 3, 1910, she says she left him, being unable to longer stand such treatment.

She asks for total divorce, temporary and permanent alimony, and the custody of her one child.

Judge J. T. Pendleton has set the case for November 19.

SOCIETY

Pretty Gowns.

The debutante gown is always interesting. It should be a part of the simplicity and beauty of the wearer. One fashioned in the trousseau of a blonde debutante of this month is of palest blue satin, the skirt barely touching the ground. A tunic of blue chiffon falls over it which is finished at the bottom with a trimming of white lace, the lace embroidered in tiny silver sequins. The same finishes the corsage, and the little kimono sleeves are spangled.

To receive in at a debut reception, a handsome matron had ordered from an Atlanta modiste a lilac faille silk, to be made according to empire lines. The corsage is cut out to show a yoke and and shoulder and kimono sleeve of silver lace overlaid with chiffon.

Another demi-toilet illustrating the favor still for black satin has a skirt made in with a trimming of itself, ornamented on one side with silk crochet buttons. The upper part of the corsage of gold and blue slisses was overlaid with gold lace, and that overlaid with chiffon. Long shoulder revers of king's blue satin came to the short waist line and gave Frenchy finish.

The tendency in trimming as the season progresses is for the flat effects, and the bright and shiny things to be modified by veilings of chiffon or net, the latter, however, not pulled on, but laid on. The kimono sleeve made in one with the corsage continues, and the trains for dressy gowns are being made shorter and shorter. The velvet gown will queen it over all the others before the season is over, with preferences for the darker colors.

The altresses and nets embroidered continue in greatest favor.

Mrs. Wells has only recently come to make her home in Atlanta, and although she is not a professional musician, her ability is declared to be so exceptional that she will mean much to the musical life. She is a pupil of the noted leader of the Kneisel Quartet.

Her selections Monday night will be: Ballade and Polonaise by Vieuxtemps, Andante from second concerto by Wieniawski, Canzonetta by D'Amboise, and Abenlied by Schumann. Mr. J. Gordon Moore will accompany Mrs. Wells.

Pink carnations and yellow and white carnations were used in attractive decoration, the score cards were Cupids and the the prizes were pictures.

Dinner Party.

A happy occasion last night was the dinner given by Judge and Mrs. Don A. Pardee, which assembled a bright company of young people.

Miss Marjorie Brown, one of the most attractive members of the younger set, who goes in January to finish her education abroad, and Misses Esther Smith and Mary Traylor, two pretty debutantes, were the guests of honor, and the party included Misses Brown, Traylor, Smith, Lyda Brown, Passie May Ottley, Louise Hawkins, Margaret Disosway, Elizabeth Rawson, Frances Nunnally, Claire Ridley, Jane Thornton, Laura Payne, May Atkinson; Messrs. Albert Thornton, Arthur Clarke, John Wheatly, Stewart Witham, Mr. Mathewson, Mr. Selden, Messrs. Joseph Brown Connally, Mr. Thiessen, Dan McDougall, James Alexander.

The house was tastefully decorated with the house plants and with chrysanthemums, and the dinner table was a glowing picture in yellow with a pretty contrast in the green of the candle shades and the foliage of the large yellow chrysanthemums, which formed a centerpiece. The hand-painted place cards were yellow chrysanthemums and the candies and ices were yellow.

After dinner there was a game of bridge.

Mrs. Pardee was becomingly gowned in gray satin embroidered in silver and crystal beads in a design of wheat. Miss Brown wore nile green chiffon hand-embroidered and trimmed with crystals, and her empire headdress was in nile green and gold. Miss Smith wore coral-colored chiffon over pink satin with an embroidery in silver. Miss Traylor was gowned in cream chiffon with a trimming of lace and silver.

Trippe—Illges.

A beautiful wedding yesterday evening was that of Miss Violet Trippe and Mr. George M. Illges, of St. Louis, which took place at the First Methodist church, the ceremony at 6 o'clock, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kaufman, in Currier street.

The church was handsomely decorated with palms and clusters of large white chrysanthemums, and appropriate organ music was played by Miss Eda Bartholomew. Dr. J. Stewart French, pastor, officiated, in the presence of a large congregation of friends.

The bride entered the church with her father, and she was a picture of girlish beauty in her wedding gown of white Olga crepe. It was trimmed with princess lace and an embroidery of seed pearls, and there was a pretty finish in the traditional orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of bride roses, lilies of the valley and orchids.

Miss Anna Watson, maid of honor, was gowned in pink marquisette, her bouquet of pink roses, and the bridesmaids wore white marquisette and carried pink chrysanthemums. They were Misses Cecil Love, Frances Connally, Mary Hudgins, Ruby Illges of Montgomery and Elvira Westmoreland.

Mr. Rowland B. Hall was best man. Mr. Van Livingston, Mr. Sam Smith, Mr. Gabriel Solomon, Mr. Henry E. Bussey and Mr. Clarence Trippe were groomsmen, and Mr. Fred Law, Mr. Edw. D. Bell, Mr. Ninninger, Mr. Powell, ushers.

At the house there was an elaborate and artistic decoration of palms and ferns, smilax and white chrysanthemums. A buffet supper was served, the ices in designs of white chrysanthemums and the confection table in the dining room was attractive in white and green. The centerpiece, on a lace cover, was a tall vase of white chrysanthemums, the silver candlesticks had green shades, and the candles were white and green. An orchestra provided bright music during the reception.

Mrs. Kaufman, receiving, was gowned in blue crepe de chine and crystals, and she was assisted by Miss Winter, the bride's aunt, who wore cream crede de chine, her corsage bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Illges left last night for a wedding trip, and they will make their home in St. Louis, where he is successfully known in the business world and has a host of friends in the social life. His bride is a beautiful young woman with a social and womanly charm, which will make her absence felt among her large acquaintance in Atlanta.

Miss Raoul's Luncheon.

Miss Eleanor Raoul's luncheon to Miss Annie Caverly was one of the bright social events of yetserday and one of the series of affairs being given in honor of the popular bride-elect. The party included, besides Miss Caverly, Miss McEvoy of Baltimore, the guest of Miss Susan Spalding, and the attendants at the Caverly-Tye wedding, Misses Frances Connally, Suzanne Spalding, Katherine Cox, Claire Ridley, Lula Dean Jones and Mrs. Joseph Eby.

The table about which the guests were assembled had as centerpiece a plateau of rose-tinted chrysanthemums. The shades on the candlesticks and the bonbons reflected the same color.

Miss Raoul's charming toilet was in green charmeuse veiled in black chiffon, and Miss Caverly wore a taupe-colored gown with finishing touches in cerise color, her toque to match.

Mrs. Collins Entertains.

In honor of her sister, Miss Ogg, of Providence, R. I., Mrs. George Collins entertained at bridge yesterday.

Twelve guests enjoyed the game, and as many more formed the party when a delicious luncheon was served. Jones, Mrs. Floyd Johnson, Mrs. C. L. Ashley, Mrs. Lederle, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Richard Snyder, Mrs. William Harwell, Mrs. James Elliott, Mrs. J. D. E. Brown.

Mrs. Collins wore a pink silk crepe gown. Miss Ogg wore a white cloth gown.

SCOTTISH MELODIES AT THE ORGAN CONCERT

Well-Known Selections From Caledonia Will Be Rendered Thursday Evening.

The "Blue Bells of Scotland," "Comin' Through the Rye," "John Anderson, My Joe," "Bonnie Dundee" and "The Campbells Are Coming," have been added to the Scottish program that will be the feature of the organ concert at the Auditorium-Armory this (Thursday) night at 8:30 o'clock.

The original program, which was announced Tuesday, containing a half dozen equally famous Highland melodies, together with a "Spring Song," by Rollins, the noted Scotch composer of McEwen Hall, Edinburgh, awakened such keen interest among the clans in Atlanta, the Georgia descendants of the McGregors and Campbells and other families of Scotch extraction who form a considerable part of this city's population, that the program committee of the Music Festival Association, acting with Dr. Starnes, city organist, decided to make the evening still more notably Scotch by adding several more well-known melodies of that nation, which will be worked into an improvisation by Atlanta's gifted oraanist.

Members of the Burns' Club are also interested in the success of the evening, and many of them will be present.

Popular prices of admission will prevail, as at all these Thursday night concerts. The association is not trying to make money, but must make a nominal charge in order that the current expenses of giving the recitals may be met. The program will be an hour and a quarter long and will consequently conclude before 10 o'clock.

New Orleans, November 9.—The Lane cotton mills, employing 1,000 operatives, resumed operations today, after having been closed since last April. TENNESSEE'S NEW GOVERNOR WAS ONCE AN ORPHAN WAIF

Nashville, Tenn., November 9.—Ben W. Hooper, the newly-elected governor of Tennessee, was found on the streets of Knoxville less than forty years ago. The waif, whose parentage is not known, was committed to the care of an orphan asylum, where he received his early training. When he was 10 years old, he attracted the attention of Captain Hooper, of Newport, Tenn., who gave him an education and his name, and before he was 21 years old, he had graduated in law with distinction.

While he had achieved some distinction in his home county, having been sent to the state legislature two terms, Hooper was not known generally in the state before he was nominated as the republican candidate for governor. He is a successful lawyer, and is considered wealthy.

Hooper's Remarkable Campaign.

He will be the first epublican governor Tennessee has had in many years, and the third in the history of the state. He was the choice of the independent democrats, as well as his own party, and his campaign has been a remarkable one. Although Tennessee is a safely democratic state, he has received the support of some of the leading democrats, and on every stump where he has spoken, confederate veterans have sat on the platform

Hooper's career has been romantic and spectacular, starting in an orphan asylum, and finally leading to the governor's chair. He was a striking figure in a romance which led to his leaving Tennessee for the west, where he grimly determined to make good, because he ha dbeen taunted with the because he had been taunted with the parents were. From a small investment he made a fortune in a few months, and returned to his Tennessee home to practice his profession. Later he married Miss Annie Jones, daughter of one of the wealthiest men in East Tennessee. He has four attractive children.

When seen this morning, Chairman Sanders, of the republican committee, said:

Sanders' Statement.

"Hooper is elected by a good safe majority, probably 15,000. The legislature is very close. It will require the official count to determine whether the republicans and independent democrats or the Patterson-Taylor democrats, will control the legislature on joint ballot. The republicans and independent democrats will surely control the house."

Chairman Vertrees, of the regular democratic committee, said:

"Senator Taylor has been elected governor, and the only question now is as to whether he will be counted out. The legislature is close, but we certainly have the senate."

In the first congressional district, where Sells is elected by 14,000 majority, legal complications are expected, as the governor did not call an election.

Hooper's Majority 16,903.

Memphis, Tenn., November 9.—The News-Scimitar says:

"With complete returns from 69 counties and conservative estimates from the remaining 27, Hooper, republican, for governor, has a majority of 16,903 over Taylor, democrat."

PRESIDENT TO SAIL FOR CANAL ZONE

Richmond, Va., November 9.—On his way to Charleston, S. C., to board the armored cruiser Tennessee, President Taft passed through here at 7:30 o'clock tonight on a special train. Mr. Taft's Panama trip will be limited to twelve days, according to the present plans. This will give him four days in the canal zone. The president will sail from Charleston at 10:30 tomorrow morning.

The Tennessee will be convoyed to Panama and back by her sister ship, the Montana. Both vessels have a speed of 22 knots, and will be driven practically at top speed all the way to Colon and back to Charleston. Mr. Taft expects to be in Washington again the night of November 23.

Reaching Charleston early tomorrow morning, the president and members of his party will breakfast at the home of Mayor Rhett. Afterwards Mr. Taft will review groups of white and negro school children.

Mr. Taft is accompanied on his Panama trip by his brother, Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati; Secretary Norton, Major Thomas L. Rhoades, medical corps, U. S. A.; Lieutenant Commander Palmer, naval aid, and Captain Butt, military aide.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR WM. FOWLER

Cartersville, Ga., November 9.—(Special.)—The jury that heard the evidence in the case of William Fowler, who was tried yesterday for the killing of A. N. Phillips remained out from 7 o'clock Tuesday evening until noon today, when a verdict of "guilty" was returned, with a recommendation to the mercy of the court.

A sentence of imprisonment for life was passed by Judge A. W. Fite after a short talk, in which the court declared his belief that the jury had found a just verdict.

Insults to women, in all cases, do not call for killing, said the judge, and no such drastic methods should be employed so long as grand juries and courts stand ready to avenge assaults upon feminine characters.

It was not announced whether or not Fowler's case would be appealed.

40,000 Barrels of Oil Go.

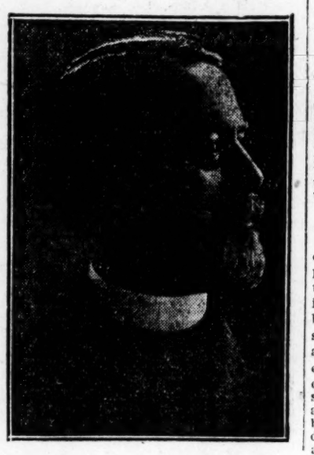

New York, November 9.—Forty thousand barrels of kerosene oil in a tank at the Tidewater Oil Company at Bayonne, N. J., went up with such a roar early tonight that the countryside trembled for miles around. One man, working near the tank, is missing, and is believed to have perished. Five others were seriously bruised and burned. The fire was confined to the one tank.

JAPAN TO BE SUBJECT OF DR. THOMAS GREEN

What do you know about Japan?

No fact is more apparent today than that Japan is a tremendous factor in twentieth century civilization. Is her influence to be for peace, or will she involve the world in war? Is her strength sufficient to make her a source of danger to the United States? Is she friendly disposed toward us, or has she sinister intentions? What was the significance of the annexation of Korea? What do you know about Japan?

DR. THOMAS GREEN.
Who will deliver lecture on Japan next Friday evening.

Dr. Thomas E. Green, who has lectured before in Atlanta, gives the next number on the Auditorium course on Friday evening. He has recently returned from a careful study of Japan during a tour of several months in the empire of the mikado. With unusual opportunities, he reaches many sources of absolute authority. His lecture will be "The Truth About Japan."

Mexico Wants Reparation.

Washington, November 9.—Protesting vigorously on behalf of the Mexican government, Senor de La Barra, ambassador to the United States from Mexico, presented a claim for reparation to the state department today because of the lynching of Antonio Rodriguez at Rock Springs, Texas. On November 3, Rodriguez, who was a Mexican citizen, confessed to the murder of Mrs. Lem Henderson at Rock Springs and was burned at the stake.

"SUIT OF SMITH SHELTERS DISSATISFIED POLITICIANS"

—W. M. Smith

That twelve or more dissatisfied politicians are shielding themselves behind the suit filed Tuesday by J. Stovall Smith, charging the city executive committee with graft and unjustifiable expenditure of the city primary fund, is the statement made Wednesday by W. M. Smith, chairman of the committee.

He says that J. Stovall Smith is not the real complainant at all; that he is now a non-resident of Atlanta, and that Attorney Bishop is in reality representing other dissatisfied politicians who will not themselves openly declare their dissatisfaction.

He says the litigation will be fought to the end.

ASSOCIATION OF DELEGATES WOULD HELP BOOST GEORGIA

Wanted—Delegates to conventions. Apply at governor's office, state capitol.

Governor Brown has not decided to put that want ad. in the local papers as yet. In fact, the governor isn't even thinking about putting it in.

It is done gratuitously, without his knowledge or consent, and there's a reason.

Recently the governor has received a request from the National Rivers and Harbors Congress to appoint fifty or seventy-five citizens of Georgia as delegates to the congress which meets in Washington in December.

Now, appointing delegates is about the easiest job the governor has, but the rub comes in getting them to go. Delegates never get anything for being delegates except the honor that attaches to the job and the satisfaction that accrues from having discharged a duty as a patriotic citizen should.

In view of the difficulty which is always experienced by governors in securing delegates to these various conventions it has been suggested that an association of ready and willing delegates or something of that order should be organized by patriotic citizens of the state who shall be ready at a moment's notice to leap to the front and maintain the dignity and prestige of the commonwealth by serving at any and all conventions that may be thought of now or hereafter.

Then, it is argued, the chief executive will forever in the future be saved the embarrassment of having practically to conscript delegates at their own expense to whatever convention happens to be called.

But seriously, the governor wishes to know who will go to the rivers and harbors congress at Washington in December. In addition to the good that will come of the convention, a good time is promised all the delegates and it is well that Georgia should be represented.

So send in your application to the governor and the appointive power will be freely exercised.

THEATERS

"Havana."

After a record of a year's run at the Gaiety theater, London, and nearly two years at the Casino theater, New York, "Havana," George Edwardes' musical play will be seen at the Grand theater tonight, Friday and Saturday, with James T. Powers as the star.

The fact that Leslie Stuart, who wrote the score of "Florodora," is the composer of the music of "Havana," will give some idea of the brilliancy of the numbers. Last season failed to produce a song which met with more favor than did "Hello People, People Hello," which may be regarded as the feature number of "Havana." The piece will be given here in its entirety with the largest musical cast ever seen on the local stage.

"Sins of the Father."

The subject of "The Sins of the Father" is so big and vital, so imminent and pressing upon the people of the south, that Thomas Dixon did not wait to put it into a novel, but attacked it directly by means of this play. He had a message to speak concerning racial purity, and he has spoken it without delaying or flinching. It comes, in Mr. Dixon's own words, as a clarion call to the south to be true to her best traditions and save American civilization. A book amuses and interests, but a play drives a message home with incomparably greater power. Those who would witness the thrilling story Mr. Dixon has put in dramatic guise, and would learn the nature of his extraordinary message, will have their opportunity at the Grand on November 17, 18 and 19. Mr. Dixon himself will positively appear in the leading role.

E. W. Klatt, Macon.

Macon, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) The funeral of E. W. Klatt, a well-known tailor, who died yesterday afternoon at the Macon hospital after a brief illness, occurred this afternoon at the mortuary chapel of Jesse B. Hart. The remains were interred in Riverside cemetery. Mr. Klatt was a well-known member of the Knights of Pythias and Central City lodge here attended his funeral.

"Human Hearts."

On Saturday next the stage of the Orpheum theater will be devoted to the presentation of the popular play, "Human Hearts," with an excellent company. The author of the play is an actor of wide experience, and fully understands the art of playmaking from the standpoint of both the spectator and actor. His effects are produced quickly, but none the less does he hold potent sway over the passions of his auditors. The play is too well known to require more than a passing word on the plot. The main thread of the story centers around Tom Logan, who is unjustly accused of murder, and sentenced to life imprisonment. His wife, Jeanette, who is a proud, ambitious woman, runs away with an old lover, and goes to New York. Even in a woman degraded as she is, the instinct of motherhood prompts her to return to the old home to try to gain possession of her child, Grace; but she is frustrated in her design, and the clouds of adversity are dispelled by the sweet sunshine of a true woman's love.

Strikers Are Overawed.

Cardiff, Wales, November 9.—The drastic action of the authorities in rushing troops and London police to the mining districts where strike riots occurred last night, overawed the strikers and the situation today appeared to be well under control.

"ATLANTA MAY" PLEASES AUDIENCE OF CHILDREN

Little Ones Make a Rush for Her Dressing Room After Concert.

Miss Atlanta May Brannen delighted her audience of little folk at Taft hall yesterday afternoon, when she gave her entertainment of sweet songs. The little singer was greeted with an outburst of applause, and each number was applauded freely. The singer was ably assisted by Miss Louise Milligan, accompanist.

When the program was concluded, the little ones made a rush for the dressing room of "Miss Atlanta May," where she had to hold a reception until her delighted juvenile audience to the last one had met her.

Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at Taft hall, she will sing to the school girls of Atlanta for the benefit of the Home for the Friendless, the inmates being admitted free. Admission, 25 cents, one-half the net proceeds to go to the home.

Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at Taft hall, she will sing for the orphans of Atlanta free.

Saturday night, at 8:30 o'clock, at Taft hall, she will sing for the benefit of the coal fund of the Associated Charities, to the working girls of Atlanta and their escorts, and to the working men and their families. Admission, 25 cents, one-half the net proceeds to go to the coal fund.

This will conclude her Atlanta engagements.

NEW WATER SUPPLY FOR THOMASTON

Thomaston, Ga., November 9.—(Special.)—The first step toward installing a system of waterworks and sewerage was made this week when the city council made a contract with Perry Andrews, of Atlanta, to bore a well in this city for the purpose of securing a water supply. The plan of boring a well, if successful, will mean a saving of approximately $10,000 in the installation of a system. The work of boring the well will begin not later than sixty days from date. The contract calls for a minimum depth of 350 feet and a maximum depth of 500 feet. The well will be located on the city's property near the electric light plant.

A bond issue will be necessary to secure funds to install the system of water and sewerage, but there will be practically no opposition to this plan.

Negro Fair Opens.

Macon, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) With a large parade through the principal business streets of the city the colored state fair will be started tomorrow morning at Central city park. THRONE AND SENATE IN A SHARP CONFLICT

The Chinese Imperial Edicts Are Resented by the Senators.

Peking, November 9.—A sharp conflict between the provincial members of the government authorities marked today's session of the imperial senate. Several of the representatives, resenting the refusal of the grand councilors to attend and explain in person the reasons for the throne's failure to punish the governor of Hunan for contracting a loan without consulting the provincial assembly, carried out a filibustering plan and blocked the business of the house for four hours. They declare they will not proceed until they get their demands. It is thought this action may result in the government's resorting to repressive measures.

New York, November 9.—The directors of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron Company today passed a dividend on the common stock, which has been at the rate of 1¼ per cent quarterly.

COMMODORES READY FOR YELLOW JACKETS

By L. W. Hardage.

Nashville, Tenn., November 9.—(Special.)—The Commodores are practicing hard for their game with Georgia Tech next Saturday. The players realize they have a hard tussle before them to down Coach Heisman's squad of veterans.

Every afternoon the 'varsity has a sharp scrimmage with the scrubs, who have been given plays as near like Tech's as possible. "Look for something funny, fellows," is the cry that can be heard from the regulars during practice.

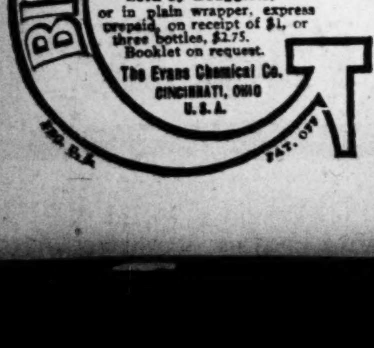

Tech can consider herself very lucky if they score on Vanderbilt this year, for the Commodores' defense is simply impenetrable.

If the field is dry next Saturday the Yellow Jackets will have a chance to show some of their much-touted offensive work.

But in the meantime, what of Neeley and Morrison? These magnificent broken-field runners will certainly show up to a great advantage on a field in good condition, and Ponce de Leon is the best in the south. By the way, watch this fellow Morrison. He will cause some of the Tech supporters in Atlanta to open their eyes. It will be worth the price of admision to watch Morrison run the team and return punts. The student body is taking great interest in the coming game. A matinee will be held on Dudley Field, where the crowd will hear the game in detail, while they watch the game between the Reserves and McLain college.

Nearly seventy-five students will make the trip to Atlanta with the team. They will have some good 2 to 1 money on Vanderbilt. Here is a good chance for some of the Tech supporters to get rich quick.

The Commodores are in better shape than at any time during the season, and should win the game Saturday by three or four touchdowns.

YELLOW JACKETS SLOWLY IMPROVE

May Strike Stride by Saturday's Game With the Commodores.

There was a little improvement in the work of the Jackets shown in practice yesterday afternoon, over the work of Tuesday afternoon, but there is plenty of room for improvement yet.

However, they are getting to work in earnest, and if some one wakes them up today in their practice they will hit their true stride. Should such a thing result, the Commodores will have all that they care to tackle to get away with the game.

In case you fans forget, we are tak'ng into consideration the weather conditions. These must be ideal for the Jackets to make any showing at all. If it is rainy like last Saturday, then it will be the same old story over again, only more so.

Fumbling Must Go.

The fumbling that has been the Jackets' weakness, must go, and in the practice Wednesday afternoon there was some signs of it improving. The trouble has been that the men have been trying to catch the swiftly passed ball with their hands alone, instead of letting their bodies interfere and make the holding certain.

However, it is to be hoped that they cut this dangerous factor out on Saturday, and that it is a dry day, for Atlanta fans want to see a good football game, and this they will under the conditions mentioned.

Bill Coleman will not be in the game, as the result of an operation for appendicitis, "Shortly" Sinclair taking his place. Patterson is back at his place at tackle, and Lewis seems to have cinched a regular half back's position.

BILL NEELEY,
Captain of the Vanderbilt Eleven.

A return of the old drive which marked the play of the Jackets three weeks ago will make Vanderbilt's much-ly-touted defense hustle some to stop the fast-charging Tech backfield, and will make the game all the more interesting.

The officials of the game have been decided upon. Bradley Walker will referee, Tutwiler will umpire, Sandy Beaver will act as field judge, and Grantland Rice as head linesman.

The tickets for the game will go on sale today at the following places: Tumlin Brothers' three cigar stands, the College Co-Op on Peachtree street, and Silverman's, Peachtree and Marietta.

The prices of admission will be: Bleachers 75 cents, grandstand $1, outer side lines $1, reserved grandstand $1.25, box seats $1.50.

The Line-Up.

The probable line-up of the two elevens on Saturday is as follows

TECH.	Position.	VANDY.
Hill (Capt.)	L. E.	Stewart
Elmore	L. T.	T. Brown
Leuhrman, Burt	L. G.	Stegall
Spalding	C.	Morgan
Patterson	R. T.	Freeland
Goree	R. E.	E. Brown
Robinson and Johnson	Q. B.	R. Morrison
Lewis	L. H. B.	K. Morrison
Luck	R. H. B.	Neeley (Capt.)
DuBard	F. B.	A. Brown

Vandy Leaves Tonight.

Nashville, Tenn., November 9.—(Special.)—The Vanderbilt eleven will leave for Atlanta on Thursday night, and will hold a light scrimmage on Friday afternoon. Quite a bunch of Vanderbilt fans will leave Friday for Atlanta to witness the game.

TWO INTERSECTION GAMES SATURDAY

Michigan Plays Pennsylvania and Cornell Tackles Chicago.

Two intersection scraps of more than passing interest are scheduled for Saturday in the east. In fact, these two games have begun to be looked upon as among the big games of the year.

Michigan and Pennsylvania lock horns at Philadelphia on Saturday in a game that should be a hummer all the way. Old Penn has the edge on the dope, but Michigan has a strong eleven that will give the Red and Blue a tremendous fight.

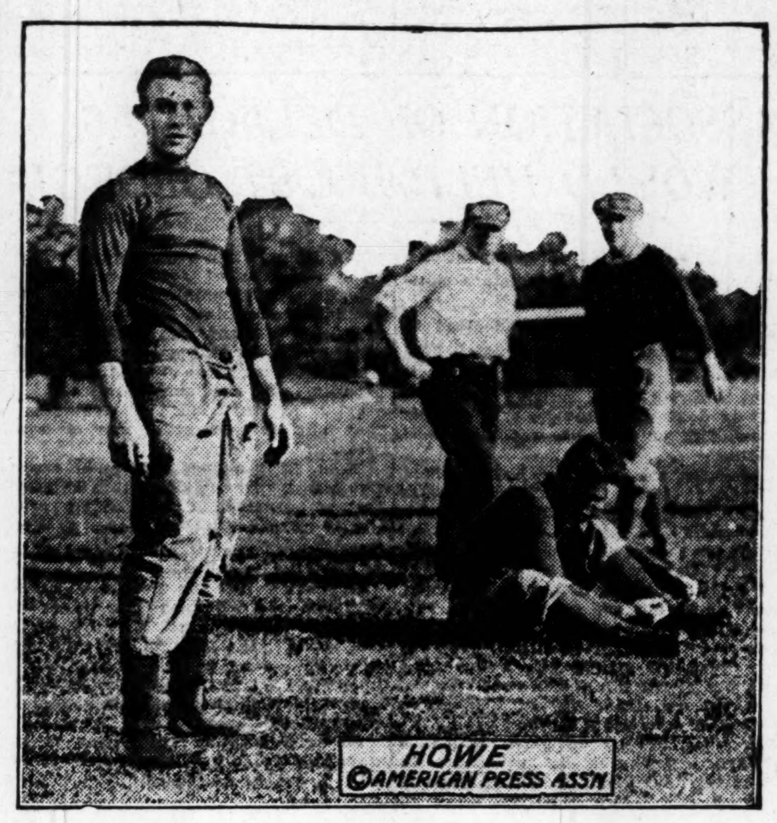

Cornell and Chicago furnish another battle of interest at Ithaca. These two teams always fight out a hard fight, and this year promises to be no exception.

They Sign With Giants.

New York, November 9.—Myers, the star catcher, signed with the New York Nationals for 1911; Catcher Ed Sweeney, Pitcher Jack Warhop and Outfielder Cree sent in their signed contracts for 1911 to the New York American League club.

YALE'S SLIM FULL BACK, ONE OF THE SEASON'S SENSATIONS

The brawny full back is considered a necessity no longer. The old-time heavy and plunging back field man is a thing of the past. The ends, however, are bigger and faster. In fact, the general plan of action seems to be to use the forwards to stir up the storm clouds so that the back fields can flash their lightning through them. The up-to-date gridiron warrior is no longer a gladiator, but a keen, scientific swordsman, looking for every possible opening and driving his thrust home with a splendidly-developed right arm. One of the most important changes made in any team this year was the shifting of Captain Hart, of the Princetons, from full back to tackle. He was the ideal type of full back under the old rules—a big-chested fellow who charged like a bull. Hart is now one of the greatest tackles of the season. Coach Haughton, of Harvard, followed the same policy when he took that powerful fellow Minot out of the back field and put him into a guard position. Seagrave, Cornell's varsity center last year, has been shifted to end. Howe, last year's quarter back at Yale and in several games this year, has been made the regular full back. He would have been considered impossible for that position last year on account of his weight, but this season he seems to be fit. Picture shows Howe after Coach Ted Coy had commended him for his splendid work at full back during a practice game. McDevitt is the man tying his shoestring, and the fellow in the white shirt is Trainer Mack.

PADDY GOT HIS $2,062, BUT MISSED BIG SERIES

One of the richest jokes of the big series has just come to light. Paddy Livington—who used to be a Red—was a duly accredited member of the Athletics, and was right there to play if needed, and yet never even saw a single inning of any game. Not one game in the five did Paddy see, and he isn't blind.

The explanation? Simple enough. Poor Paddy was detailed to warm up the reserve pitchers, and was behind the grandstand all through each and every battle, warming Morgan, Plank or Dygert—and Mack kept him there, too, so that there would always be a fresh slabman ready in case of need. Thus it happened that all Pat knew of the games was what he could gather from the yelling of the throng. Anyhow, he got his $2,062, same as the other fellows.

HALLADAY CAR NEVER STOPPED

Through an Oversight This Car Was Not Mentioned.

In reporting the Speedway Grand Prize race, at the local Speedway on Monday, through an oversight, the Halladay entrant was not mentioned in the list of cars that went the 250 miles without a stop.

This car, which was No. 34, started with the flash of Starter Wagner's pistol and finished the entire 250 miles, running steadily and consistently all the way without a single stop for any kind of trouble.

BOBBY WALLACE WILL LEAD BROWNS?

Among those in the know, including Charles Spink, owner of The Sporting News, it is the consensus of opinion that Bobby Wallace, the ancient Scot, will be the Browns' next manager. This rumor received slight verification Saturday from Wallace's father in Pittsburg, according to reports emanating from the Smoky City, but Colonel Hedges says the report is untrue, and Wallace seconds his boss. Now, why this secrecy? If Wallace is the next manager, why not announce it? The fans want to know, and they are the people to be pleased.

Wallace held a long conference with Mr. Hedges Saturday and has been closeted with the owner of the Browns nearly every day for the past week. That's why the wiseacres are boosting Bobby for the job, and, unless all signs fail, he will be the man in command next season. But, as hereinbefore stated, why this secrecy? Eh?

QUERIES ANSWERED.

Under this head the sporting editor will endeavor to answer all questions pertaining to all branches of sports.

Dick Jemison, Sporting Editor Constitution? Did Tech ever beat Auburn? If so, what year, what day and what was the score? A. A.

Tech defeated Auburn Saturday November 3, 1906, by the score of 11 to 0, Chip Roberts scoring two touchdowns and Lobster Brown converting one into a goal.

"BILL" COLEMAN LOST TO JACKETS

Right Guard Operated On for Appendicitis—Sinclair In.

Another blow was struck at the poor Yellow Jackets on yesterday when they lost another of their best players. "Bill" Coleman, the right guard of the team, is in the hospital where he has been operated on for appendicitis.

This means that Coleman is lost for the season and it is hard luck, too, for "Bill" was a mighty strong player and a powerful one, despite his light weight, he tipping the beam at only 151 pounds.

"Shorty" Sinclair, the big 6-foot 6-lineman, will be in the line in the game with Vanderbilt, playing in Coleman's place, and the way "Shorty" played for the little while he was against Auburn, shows that he gives promise of devedoping into one of the best linemen in the game.

REMARKABLE RUN BY BRUCE-BROWN

Makes 76 Miles on the Chatham Course.

Grand Prize Race to Prove a Record-Breaker --- Practice Trials Indicate That Last Year's Records Will Be Smashed.

Savannah, Ga., November 9.—With but one day remaining ere the starter of the Automobile Club of America will send the fast cars on their long journeys around the grand prize course of the Savannah Automobile Club, committeemen, drivers and mechanicians are busily employed in final preparations. Those managing the event have all arrangements well in hand, and confidently expect it to be one of the most successful meets ever held. They count upon a large attendance, not only of Savannahians, but of visitors from throughout the state and from the east and the west. Also they rely upon the fast course and the superior cars and skillful drivers to show record time in the races.

An indication that the grand prize race may prove a record-breaker was afforded in today's practice, when David Bruce Brown, driving a Fiat, made the circuit of the 17.3 miles course at a speed that figured out as 76 miles an hour. No other driver let his car out for such speed, though practically all of the thirty-four entrants of the three events were on the course for their last but one trial. Tomorrow they will appear for the final try-out, using the course between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock, during which it is closed to all save the racing cars.

Friday morning at 10 o'clock the races will begin, the Savannah challenge trophy event being the first. The seven entrants will start at 30 second intervals, beginning at 10 o'clock, to be followed an hour later at similar intervals by the eight entrants for the Tiedeman trophy contest. The great event of the meet, the grand prize, will be raced on Saturday, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Already the wise have begun naming the winner of the big races. The inevitable differences of opinion as to the result has, however, brought about a number of wagers, in which the foreign cars figure as favorites. In fact, offers of even money on the foreigners against the Americans usually fails to evoke a sufficient degree of money—backed patriotism to book a bet. Hemery, driving a Benz, and Nazarro, at the wheel of a Fiat, are the ruling favorites, and the betting thus far recorded has been upon those two.

Tonight a general meeting of the committees was held, when all was declared practically in readiness for the races.

DISEASES OF MEN

If I have some decided and original views on these diseases it is because I have been continuously in the work for 33 years, and for 25 years have devoted my whole time to these different and delicate cases.

I believe that many cases of stricture may be cured with less harsh treatment that they often receive. I believe this because I have demonstrated it again and again.

I believe that Syphilis needs not only the proper remedies, but careful, intelligent methods and attention to detail in order to cure and cure permanently.

I believe that Chronic Gnorrhoea causes more physical wrecks than any other disease. I believe this because I know. I believe that nothing needs more scientific methods in order to cure, and the man who suffers from it knows, too, that I am right.

I believe in straightforward advertising and honest business methods, combined with conscientious treatment and if you are in need of advice, and will appreciate that kind of service, I will take pleasure in examining you free of charge.

Office hours 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.; Sunday, 10 to 1.

My booklets, "Diseases of Men" and "Health Essays" sent sealed and in plain wrapper on request.

I have been practicing in Atlanta longer than any advertising specialist here or any firm of advertising specialists. Any statements to the contrary are unequivocally false.

GEORGIA LOSES HER FULL BACK

Athens, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) "It's an ill wind that blows no one good," is an old saying, and it is true in the recent happenings in the Georgia football team. The bunch left for Augusta this afternoon, ready for the game with Clemson.

McClelland, who has been playing full back for the Red and Black, and playing well has been barred by the faculty for conditions in his studies.

Coach Cunningham has shifted Left End Bowden to McClelland's place and Cliff Hatcher, the star end of the team, will get back in the game and take Bowden's place at end. This last is mighty good news, and partially atones for the loss of McClelland.

GEORGIA SCRUBS WIN FROM FAST G. M. A. TEAM

College Will Play No More Games Against Preparatory Schools.

University of Georgia, Athens, Ga., November 9.—The Georgia scrubs defeated the fast G. M. A. team this afternoon by the score of 15 to 0 in the last game that a Georgia team, scrubs or 'varsity, will ever play against a prep team. This contest demonstrated the folly of playing against prep teams because after every play a G. M. A. player would be laid out and time taken out for him.

Creekmore and Powell played in the first half and it was all going to suit the scrubs. In the first quarter Sancken scored a touchdown but failed to kick goal. In the second quarter Creekmore and Powell both scored touchdowns and failed to kick goal either time. Creekmore and Powell were taken out in the second half and after that neither side scored. The scrubs worked the forward pass to advantage frequently and also made gains by bucks and end runs. Sancken, Middlebrooks, Palmer, Creekmore and Powell played good ball for the Georgians, and Bullock, Rey and Downey did the best work for G. M. A. Referee, Frank Anderson. Umpire, Luck.

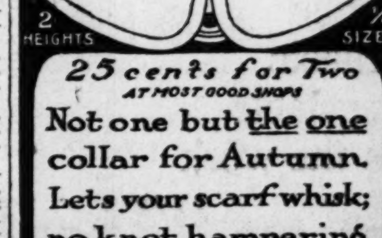

To His Lady Grown Old.

(From The French of Pierre Ronsard.)

When by the fire, grown old, with silv'ry hair,
You spin by candle-light, with weary eyes,
Humming my songs, you'll say with still surprise,
"Ronsard once sang of me when I was young and fair."
Then as your maidens hear the well-known sound,
Though half asleep after the toils of day,
Not one but wakes, and, as she goes her way,
Blesses your name, with praise immortal crowned.
I shall be dead and gone, a fleshless shade,
Under Elysian bowers my head be laid;
While you, crushed o'er your fire, grown old and gray,
Sigh for my love, regret your past disdain.
Live now, nor wait for love to come again,
Gather the roses of your life today.

GEORGIA PLAYS CLEMSON TODAY

Clemson and Georgia meet on the gridiron at Augusta today in what promises to be a mighty hard fought game from the jump. On the dope, Georgia has all the edge, but it remains to be seen whether she really has such a remarkable edge or not.

In the kind of football played this year a light speedy team has a mighty good chance. Both teams are speedy, but Clemson is the faster of the two and her lighter weight may not prove any serious handicap in this game.

Last season the two teams met and Clemson was the victor by 5 to 0, but there is a big difference in the two teams this season, Georgia having improved more than Clemson.

The Red and Black eleven enters the game averaging about 158 pounds, while the Tigers will only tip the scales is a 148 clip, which is quite an edge for Cunningham's bunch. However, if it is a dry day the speed of the two teams will get a thorough tryout.

McClelland, the big full back, has been lost by Georgia as the result of conditions in his studies. Bowden, the end, has been shifted to his place, and Cliff Hatcher, considered by many as the best end in the south, will get back in the game.

Here is the way the two teams will probably line-up:

GEORGIA.	Position.	CLEMSON.
Hatcher	Left End	Woodward
Franklin (capt.)	Left Tackle	S. Britt
Lucas	Left Guard	W. Britt
Covington	Center	Gilmer
Peacock	Right Guard	Ezell
Maddox	Right Tackle	Martin
Griffith	Right End	Hanckel (capt.)
Hay	Quarter Back	Connelly
Woodruff	Left Half Back	Kangeter
McWhorter	Right Half Back	Bissell
Bowden	Full Back	Bates

ALABAMA ELEVEN IS CRIPPLED UP

By H. U. Feilbelman.

University, Ala., November 9.—(Special.)—Apparently this is a badly injured camp. "Chug" Hurd, end on the 1910 as well as the 1908 team, is out of the game with a double fracture of the left elbow, sustained in the Mississippi affair, and is not expected to return to the fight this season. His absence is a severe blow to Alabama hope, a loss that would be intensified if it were not for the fact that Lowman has good substitute timber that he is making use of. Big Vandegraff, who has been starring in every contest that the Crimson and White has figured in this year has been shifted from the back field to Hurd's pet place. Substitute McDowell going to right half. This shift is considered a good one, one that is believed will remedy the weakness.

Hurd is the only member of 'varsity that is permanently out of whack. Other men are on the sick list, but will remain so only for a few days. Greer, who has been taking Moody's place at quarter now and then has not sufficiently recovered from his severe wrench in the right leg to call signals. He has, however, been coming out on the gridiron for the last two afternoons, and is due to be a regular before many sunsets. Shirley, he with the risings on the arm, is about well enough to go to end, while Wilbur Chamblin, on whom the new denatured rules placed a broken collar-bone, came out in togs this afternoon. He hopes to be in the running before the season has ended. With the slight exception of Merrill, the big guard, who carries a mean puncture over an optic, and who is slightly worried every now and then because of the hurt, this completes the list of injuries on the Alabama squad.

Luckily for Coach Lowman he has an array of usable men to send in to the holes made by the departure of crippled regulars. For instance, he has big Hicks, a green but heavy linesman, making holes at guard. Griffin and Manning are also available.

With the material at hand, then, the Alabama coach in not allowing the Mississippi defeat to keep him from playing his best card against Sewanee. Lowman knows that he has speed, and with that he is putting the men through telling gruelling.

Lots f men would rather be considered mean than ordinary.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL THE MARKETS

HEAVY SELLING AFTER THE BUREAU REPORT

Cotton Market Broke Sharply and Closed at 10 to 22 Points Off.

New York, November 9.—Heavy general selling followed the report of the census bureau in the cotton market today and prices which had recently advanced on expectations of bullish ginning returns and decreasing estimates of the crop had a sharp break, closing steady at a net loss of 10@22 points.

Liverpool had shown considerable strength over the local holiday, but the census figures published at the reopening of business here proved a little larger than had been looked for in bullish circles and first prices were 2 points lower to 3 points higher. At first there seemed to be almost enough demand from the leading bulls and abroad to offset realizing sales, but the market gradually weakened under the weight of offerings, and while there was more or less irregularity prices worked off to a net loss of about 16@22 points during the late morning. As offerings subsided the market steadied on covering by early sellers and some support from the bull leaders, but after a rally of 10 or 12 points it again weakened under renewed liquidation and bear pressure and closed at practically the lowest figures of the day. Liverpool, which was about 20 to 30 American points better than due, just before the local opening broke sharply when it was seen that traders here were included to put a bearish construction on the census figures, but foreign buying orders appeared to be one of the chief sources of support during the middle of the day. All sorts of mathematical deductions were made from the report of the census bureau showing about 7,339,000 bales ginned to November 1 this year, comparing with 7,017,000 to the same date last season. The amount ginned for the period between October 18 and November 1 this year was practically 1,929,000 bales, compared with 1,486,000 bales last year, and according to some authorities this indicated a crop of nearly 13,000,000 bales, while others pointed out that the total ginning to November 1 this year was less than 5 per cent in excess of last season, suggesting a crop under 11,500,000 bales. Private cables quoted a prominent English expert as estimating the world's requirements of American cotton for the season at 12,500,000 bales.

Estimated receipts of cotton at the ports today 49,913, against 53,653 last week and 57,202 last year. For the week 375,000 bales, against 398,305 last week and 377,388 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 12,267 bales, against 18,995 last year.

Cotton, spot closed quiet, 20 points decline; middling uplands 14.75; do. gulf 15.00; sales 600 bales.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, November 9.—Spot cotton steady, unchanged. Sales on the spot, 700 bales; to arrive, 2,225; low ordinary, 11 1-16, nominal; ordinary, 11⅞; good ordinary, 13 5-16; strict good ordinary, 13 11-16; low middling, 14; strict low middling, 14¼; middling, 14½; strict middling, 14⅝; good middling, 14¾; strict good middling, 14 15-16; middling fair, 15 3-16; middling, fair to good, 15 9-16; fair, 15 15-16, nominal; receipts, 12,267; stock, 110,755.

Cotton futures opened steady at a decline of 1 to 5 points as the result of selling orders induced by somewhat larger returns on ginning by the census bureau than generally expected. The report said that up to November 1 there had been ginned a total of 7,339,983 bales. The average maximum expectation was 7,300,000, and the exceeding of this maximum had more effect than was apparent in the price changes from Liverpool, made a sensational advance over the holiday in the American markets, and not only was this advance not met here, but prices were even put lower than Monday's closing level. After the first call, selling orders increased and prices gradually fell off, standing 13 to 16 points under Monday's last quotations at the end of the first half hour of business.

Selling pressure was in evidence until the middle of the morning, when prices were 15 to 20 points under Monday's close. It then became evident that spinners and spot houses were the largest buyers, and the good character of the buying caused short sellers to hesitate.

Toward noon there was a small reaction, but the market displayed no strength, although its tone was steadier and the decline seemed checked for the time being at last. The weather forcast calling for more or less unsettled weather and rain in the cotton country, was considered unfavorable, and had something to do with stopping the downward course of the market. At noon the active months were 9 to 13 points under Monday's close.

In the afternoon session, the market was dull.

At 2 o'clock prices were 13 to 17 points under Monday's close.

The market closed barely steady, at a net decline of 11 to 14 points.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY STOCKS STRONGER

But Final Declines in Leading Stocks Reached 3 to 3 1-2 Points for the Day.

New York, November 9.—The stock market today turned its back on the results of the elections, will characteristic preference for future over past influences as a field in which to search for motives of action. The demand, which it was hoped would be stimulated by the passing of the elections, failed to materialize and selling to take profits had to be done on a descending scale of prices in consequence. The amount of profit-taking sales was large and the effect on prices acute and of growing effect as the day progressed. Final declines reached from 3 to 3½ points for leading stocks.

Turning from the elections and looking ahead, there were found several matters of disquietude, which had their part in pushing the selling movement. The passing of the dividend on Sloss-Sheffield Steel had been looked forward to for some time past, and the officials of the company had as part explanation an accident to apparatus, which had embarrassed operations. The minor point in the existing depression in the iron market and the accumulation of production allowed in the explanation did not prevent due consideration of that subject in the stock market. Its point was sharpened by the belief that tomorrow will see a report from the United States Steel Corporation of the tonnage of unfilled orders on hand November 1, which will carry a lower figure than any statement ever before issued by the corporation. The effect was to obscoure the confidence in improvement in the steel trade, which has been diligently fostered in connection with the speculation for the rise in stocks. A doubt took shape whether the demand for material from the railroads would take on a larger proportion while the question of higher freight rates is still open.

The problem of enlisting capital for such expenditures, even after allowing the rate increase, took on more importance with a survey of the heavy requirements upon the world markets. Suggestions of possible relief for the local money market by gold imports from Paris received little countenance from international bankers. One of the most prominent of them, newly arrived from a visit abroad, expressed his conviction that the price of capital is to remain higher and that corporations needing it will have to recognize the condition by selling securities, even those running for a long time, at reasonably low figures.

The taking of a strike vote by the locomotive engineers of western railroads directed renewed attention to another source of embarrassment confronting the railroads. The expiration of the term of agreements with arilroad employees of various classes within the next few months will precipitate this subject into the field of active factors. The local strike of express wagon drivers gave the subject of labor troubles more vivid force in shaping stock market sentiment.

The German potash law was a specific cause for the weakness of the fertilizer stocks. The granting of higher freight charges in southeastern territory by the interstate commerce commission was equally specific in strengthening the Southern railway stocks.

Call money went no higher than 4 3-8 per cent and yielded to below 4 per cent, but time rates were firmly held. The foreign exchange market was firmer at higher rates. Bonds irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,137,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

At noon prices remained at about the opening level. WORLD WHEAT STOCK SHOWED BIG INCREASE

This Weakened Chicago Market, but There Was Slight Recovery at the Close.

Chicago, November 9.—With the world's record of wheat showing a big increase today, the market here weakened in a threatening manner. The close, however, was at a slight recovery, though ⅝@¾c net lower. Corn finished ¼@½c down and oats unchanged to a loss of ⅛c. Latest figures for provisions varied from a rise of 37½c to a deline of 2½@5c.

The uplift in the total amount of wheat in sight in the world was 2,506,000 bushels against 1,451,000 increase a year ago. Much selling followed the announcement. but the market was already in the possession of the bears in consequence of cable dispatches telling of declining quotations and of favorable crop conditions in foreign countries, notably Australia. Considerable of the selling here was said to be on European orders. Operations on the short side, as a matter of fact, were overdone, and the effect was to cause a reaction, which was aided by news that the rush of receipts at Winnipeg will be over in about ten days. Another influence helping a rally was the fact that primary receipts in this country showed a big falling off compared with last year. May fluctuated from 94¼@95c, closing easy, ⅝c net lower at 94⅝@94⅞c.

Larger country offerings, fine weather and fear of a bearish report from the government pulled down corn. There was heavy selling by a leading local concern. Nevertheless, the tone in the final trading was firm. May ranged from 48¼@48⅝c and finished at 48⅜@48½c, a net loss of ½c. No. 2 yellow closed at 50½@50¾c.

Oats suffered a little in sympathy with corn. The main feature was the buying of December and the selling of May at 3c spread. The distant month sold from 34¼@34½c, with last transactions a shade off at 34⅜@34½c.

Purchases credited to packers caused a lively advance in hog products, but it was largely overcome through speculative selling later. In the end, pork was unchanged to 5@7½c higher; lard 2½c lower to 5c gain and ribs strung out from 2½ to 5c loss to an advance of 37½c.

Is it not better to own good Real Estate than to risk your money in stock, shares and other precarious ventures? They are all liable to fail or to depreciate in value, whereas really good property is all the time going up in actual worth. We have some most desirable investments now upon our books. COPPER COPPER COPPER COPPER COPPER COPPER

Gold is a mere bagatelle compared with its value. A positive necessity in every walk of life. It will be used when the coal mines are exhausted to carry warmth to your firesides from the cold mountain streams. NOW is your opportunity to invest in one of the really great mines of this metal. Fortune is chary knocking twice at man's door. Don't procrastinate. Look where Clark, Phelps-Dodge, Guggenheims and many others are from starting a nest egg in copper properties. We could sell our property, but we won't; we want a little machinery to work it on a grander scale, to replace the now inadequate machinery for hoisting the ore, opening up new ore bodies, and continuing the development on a much larger plan. It doesn't make any difference whether it is ONE DOLLAR you invest or FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, you will receive the same pro rata of the returns that are bound to accrue on your investment, and the men interested, who are the foremost of this great southwest country, will guarantee that your money will be spent to that end.

Shares Today, $1.00, January 1st positively not less than $2.00 per share

If you want to examine the mine before investing, wire your stock reservation to or send check for the number of shares you want, and they will be promptly forwarded. Reference: Willcox Bank & Trust Co.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, November 9.—Liverpool advanced sharpl ybefore our opening on reports of damage to the India crop from rain. The controlling factor, however, was the ginners' report of the census bureau, stating that 7,339,983 bales had been ginned to date. During the last period, the ginnings exceeded 19,000 bales, almost the record for the period. This statement brought realizing orders, so that the market opened below the close of Monday, and a severe break was only avoided by the large buying by arbitrage brokers, whose selling in Liverpool against these purchases caused the decline abroad. This decline comes as rther a shock to the outside holders of cotton ,as the market has usually advanced on all government reports, during the past two years. The trade was bullish, believing the spinners must soon buy, whether they believe the small crop estimates are disturbed by the ginners' report or not. Usually, afte such a decline in Liverpool, the market closes higher the following day.

SIXTH DISTRICT PHYSICIANS MEET

Dr. B. F. Carson, of Griffin, Elected President of Association.

Brown House, Macon, Ga., November 9.—(Special.)—The ninth semi-annual session of the Sixth District Medical Association was held at the council chamber at the city hall today, seventy-five to one hundred prominent phydicians from the counties represented attending and having part in the work of the program. President J. A. Combs, of Locust Grove, called the meeting to order. Dr. R. B. Barron, of this city, welcomed the visitors, after invocation by President W. N. Ainsworth, of Wesleyan college. Dr. F. M. Carson, of Griffin, responded.

After early announcements and committee reports Dr. F. M. Carson, of Griffin; Dr. K. P. Moore, of Macon; Dr. E. M. Green, of Milledgeville; Dr. J. A. Combs, of Locust Grove; Dr. J. A. Jarrell, of Jackson; Dr. F. C. Johnston, of Walden; Dr. J. T. Stewart, of Griffin, and Dr. E. C. Davis, of Atlanta, president of the Medical Association of Georgia, were heard in addresses during the morning session.

The visitors were dined at a luncheon specially prepared at the Tea room.

At the afternoon session Dr. F. M. Cunningham, Dr. M. M. Stapler, Dr. J. R. B. Branch, Dr. A. L. Blalock, Dr. I. H. Adams, Dr. C. C. Harrold, all of Macon; Dr. N. P. Walker, of Milledgeville; Dr. E. G. Jones, of Atlanta; Dr. J. W. Aycock, of Molena; Dr. M. M. Head, of Zebulon; Dr. A. G. Fort, of Lumpkin, and Dr. F. W. Schnauss, of Cecil, had various subjects to discuss. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one and those attending and taking part had much that was worth the attention of the physicians.

Dr. B. F. Carson, of Griffin, was made president of the association at the session this afternoon. Dr. E. M. Green, of Milledgeville, was named vice president. The secretary and treasury, Dr. I. H. Adams, of Macon, is named for a term of two years.

WINGS BURGLARS AT WORK ON SAFE

Merchant at Ceres, Ga., Puts Two Cracksmen to Flight.

Macon, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) Porter Moore, who operates a small store at Ceres, 20 miles west of Macon, in Crawford county, was aroused in the middle of the night by safe-blowers who had entered his place and planned a robbery.

The explosion of the safe awakened him, and as he grabbed his gun and went for the spot, he saw the intruders retreating in the darkness. Firing both loads at two men he returned to dress and resume his search.

Reports to officers here are to the effect that the man hit both the robbers, for their cries of distress were heard and traces of blood were found in the direction in which both of them ran. It was believed an escape was made into Macon, and a search was asked here.

Nobody has been arrested, but it is thought it will be an easy matter to locate the robbers on account of the certain injuries they sustained when the merchant fired on them. His safe had considerable money in it, but the explosion only opened the outer door, and the robbers had to escape when Moor appeared with a gun.

DAUGHTERS UNVEIL J. M. KELLER TABLET

President General McSherry Addresses Daughters of Confederacy.

Little Rock, Ark., November 9.—The second day's session of the national convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy was devoted largely to hearing reports of the officers.

After the reports had been read Mrs. S. E. S. Rose, of Mississippi, read a historical paper on the formation of the Ku Klux Klan. She was followed by Mrs. Lucy Green Yerger, who, in behalf of the Mississippi division, presented a gavel to Mrs. Orlando Halliburton, president of the Arkansas division. The gavel is made of wood from a cedar tree that grew in the yard of Jefferson Davis' home in south Mississippi.

The unveiling of the J. M. Keller monument to the memory of the confederate women of Arkansas was the principal event of the afternoon program.

The visiting delegates attending the convention were the guests of business men at a luncheon served at a local hotel today, at which souvenirs of the state of Arkansas were given the guests.

The convention will last through Saturday.

NON-DRINKER IS MADE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON

First Prohibition Mayor of the Great City Is Installed.

London, November 9.—Sir Vesey Strong, London's first prohibition lord mayor, was inducted into office today. The civic pageant included one novel feature. The procession from the Guild hall through the streets of the city to the law courts, where the oath was administered, and thence back to the mansion house was devoted to the representation of four scenes from Shakespeare connected with independent incidents in the history of the city of London.

Committee at Work.

Macon, Ga., November 9.—(Special.) A nominating committee, composed of Edgar S. Wilson, chairman; W. E. Dunwody, F. W. Armstrong, J. A. Flournoy and E. W. Stetson, was selected at last night's session of the chamber of commerce members and their work will be to select two candidates for president, two for vice president and a board of directors of twenty members to be voted on before the December meeting of the chamber. Interest in the selection of officers under the new arrangements will be lively.

MEXICAN MOB CRIES DEATH

the people of the United States, characterizing them as "giants of the dollar; pigmies of culture, and barbarous whites of the north," and asking: "Where is the boasted yankee civilization?"

Shortly before noon the crowd assembled before the new Juarez monument in the Alamede and proceeded to the municipal palace, where several of their number, who were arrested last night, were being examined by the authorities. A company of mounted police followed in the wake of the crowd. From the palace, the students marched through Avonida San Francisco, the principal business thoroughfare of the city, stopping in front of the candy store, where the flag incident occurred. Gathering numbers as it proceeded, the crowd marched to the offices of the department of foreign relations, making demonstrations on the way against American business places and breaking windows in the St. Francis hotel.

Hand to Hand Fight.

Jack Davis, an automobile repair man, had a hand-to-hand encounter with a dozen members of the crowd when they attempted to tear the top from his automobile and enter his establishment. He knocked several of his assailants to the pavement and drove them from his place.

At the head of Juarez avenue, around the famous statue of the Iron Horse, speeches were made denouncing all Americans, and a passing street car conveying school children to the American school was stoned. One child was struck and severely injured. Windows of the car were shattered. Among others who were assaulted were the son of Ambassador Wilson, and William Marshall, an employee of the National railways. The latter was hit on the head with a stone and sustained a severe scalp wound.

During the progress of the students about the city, Governor Landa y Escandon, of the federal district; Chief of Police Felix Diaz and former American Ambassador Joaquin Casasus followed in automobiles:

In a speech at the municipal palace, Governor Landa addressed words of approval of the students' protest, but cautioned them against violence.

Note of the Ambassador.

Ambassador Wilson, in his note to the foreign office, described the occurrence as a disgrace to the city and to the Mexican people, and expressed surprise that inasmuch as his office had warning in advance of the proposed demonstrations, the Mexican authorities had none, or having it, took no action to prevent them.

Foreign Minister Creel said to reporters this afternoon that every effort would be made to punish those guilty of offering insult to the flag.

Course He Would.

Chicago, November 9.—Charles Webb Murphy, the president of the Chicago National League baseball club, says he stands ready to give John T. Brush $30,000 for Christy Mathewson, the star pitcher of the Giants. He also says that Matty could name his own salary.

"I don't see how I will ever get Mathewson," said Mr. Murphy, "but any time the New York club wants $30,000 for him I will sign the check and tell the pitcher to make out his own contract. To my mind Mathewson is the greatest pitcher that ever faced a batter. If I could have had Pitcher Mathewson in the recent world's series there would have been a different story to tell. New York will never let him go, but I would consider him a bargain at $30,000.

The Missing Bird.

"How do you find the chicken soup tonight, Mr. Newcomb?" queried the boarding house landlady.

"I have no difficulty in finding the soup, Mrs. Hasher," he replied, "but I am inclined to think the chicken will be able to prove an alibi."

"So that's the baby, eeh?"

"That's the baby."

"Well, I hope you will bring it up to be a conscientious, God-fearing man."

"I am afraid that will be rather difficult."

"Pshaw! As the twig is bent the tree's inclined."

"I know, but this twig is bent on being a girl, and we are inclined to let it go at that."—Houston Post.

CLEAN SWEEP BY DEMOCRATS

Texas, Colquitt

Tennessee, Hooper, fusion	12,000

The governorships in two states are not yet reported as being beyond doubt, namely, Colorado and Idaho.

DEMOCRATS WILL CONTROL NEXT CONGRESS OF NATION

Chicago, November 9.—The sixty-second congress will stand as follows:

Democrats elected, 225.
Republicans elected, 164.
Socialists elected, 1.
Doubtful district, 1.
Total, 391.
Majority of house, 196.

Complete returns on the election of representatives in congress indicate that the democrats will have a working majority of 29 in the next house. The number of democrats elected to congress, according to the latest returns, which are of an unofficial character, is 225.

The Republican Strength.

The republican representation will be 164 or 165, or 8 seats less than the democrats now have, in the sixty-first congress.

The eleventh Pennsylvania district, which is represented in the sixty-first congress by a republican, is in doubt. The twelfth Pennsylvania district, also normally republican, is likewise doubtful. The earlier returns indicated the election of Robert E. Lee, and he is carried in the table as representative of this district. Later returns, however, give his republican opponent, Robert D. Heaton, an excellent fighting chance, and the official count will be necessary to determine the result.

Absolute confidence is not felt in the returns for some of the Wisconsin districts, and it is not impossible that the official figures will change the totals of the two parties. The fifth Wisconsin district is claimed by Victor L. Berger, socialist. Henry F. Cochems, the republican candidate, does not concede Berger's election, and a recount may be necessary to decide the election.

GOVERNOR POTHIER WINS BY A VERY NARROW MARGIN

Providence, R. I., November 9.—Elected a year ago by the largest plurality ever acorded a candidate for governor in Rhode Island, Governor Arem J. Pothier, republican, was re-elected for a second term yesterday by a plurality of 903, one of the smallest votes in the history of gubernatorial contests in the state.

The total vote was: Pothier, republican, 33,492; Lewis A. Waterman, democrat, 32,589; Nathaniel T. Green, prohibitionist, 953; James Herrick, social labor, 599.

The remainder of the republican state ticket ran ahead of the governor.

The democrats elected to congress for the first district George F. Shaughnessy, while the republicans won with George H. Utter in the second.

The next assembly will be deadlocked over the election of a successor to Senator Nelson W. Aldrich.

Light Vote in Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., November 9.—Not more than 40,000 votes were polled in Mississippi yesterday. The amendment to the constitution making the judiciary elective was defeated.

Crumpacker Wins.

Gary, Ind., November 9.—Congressman Edgar D. Crumpacker's plurality for re-election in the tenth Indiana district is estimated by the returns received today to be approximately 2,400. The republicans elected their Lake county ticket by 1,500.

NOT A WORD OF COMMENT FROM COLONEL ROOSEVELT

Oyster Bay, N. Y., November 9.—Theodore Roosevelt had not a word to say today as to the results of the election. It was said at Sagamore Hill that not only did he have nothing to say, but that no statement was forthcoming for at least an indefinite period.

Colonel Roosevelt had shut himself off from the outside world. When an attempt was made to reach him today he sent out word that he would see no reporters at Oyster Bay.

Colonel Roosevelt said several days ago he would stay at home to rest for some time, and that he would not go to New York until November 17.

ENTIRE DEMOCRATIC TICKET IS ELECTED IN OKLAHOMA

Guthrie, Okla., November 9.—Lee Cruce, democratic candidate for governor, and the entire democratic state ticket has been elected by at least 20,000 majority, according to incomplete unofficial returns received here today.

It appears the democrats will control the legislature. Three democratic congressional candidates have been elected, but it developed that Byrd S. McGuire, republican, was elected to congress from the first district. It seemed probable that Dick T. Morgan, republican, was elected congressman from the second district, but the contest was still in doubt.

Late returns confirm the defeat of the constitution amendment to substitute local option for state-wide prohibition. The amendment to grant women the right of suffrage is in doubt.

SOCIALIST BERGER IS LEADING IN THE MILWAUKEE COUNT

Milwaukee, Wis., November 9.—Late this afternoon The Evening Wisconsin says that Victor L. Berger, socialist-democrat, leads Cochems, republican, by 66 votes in the fifth congressional district, with 3 precincts from Waukesha county to hear from, which The Evening Wisconsin claims will give Cochems enough to elect.

The Journal claims that complete returns give Berger 130 plurality.

A recount may be necessary to decide the election.

CHESTER ALDRICH IS CHOSEN GOVERNOR OF NEBRASKA

Omaha, Neb., November 9.—Chester H. Aldrich, republican, has probably been elected governor of Nebraska over James C. Dahlman, democrat, by a plurality of between 5,000 and 10,000. The Omaha Bee, republican, claims Aldrich's election by at least 7,000, and the Omaha World-Herald, democratic, admits Dahlman's probable defeat.

Congressman Gilbert M. Hitchcock, candidate for the United States senate, in opposition to present Senator Elmer J. Burkett, has run ahead of Dahlman, generally, and The World-Herald, of which Hitchock is the proprietor, claims his election under the Oregon plan of voting by 24,000.

It seems likely the entire republican state ticket has been chosen.

Carroll Wins in Iowa.

Des Moines, November 8.—Returns from 762 precincts out of 2,300 indicate the re-election of Governor Carroll. The precincts wipe out the Porter gains in the cities and give the incumbent a lead of 2,775 votes.

California Republican.

San Francisco, November 9.—While the returns from yesterday's election are still far from complete, Johnson, republican, for governor, has an indicated plurality of from 25,000 to 35,000 and the entire state ticket will approximate this figure.

A solid republican delegation is returned to congress, and the state legislature is safely republican, insuring the election of a republican sucessor to Senator Flint.

UNITED STATES SENATOR WON BY DEMOCRATS OF MISSOURI

St. Louis, November 9.—Both republican and democartic managers today claim to have elected their state tickets yesterday. Latest returns show substantial increases for the republicans, and point to possible success for their candidates for supreme court justices and superintendent of schools.

In the senatorial contest the democrats nominated James A. Reed, of Kansas, over David R. Francis, of St. Louis. John C. McKinley is the republican nominee.

The legislature is believed to be democratic.

GREAT DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY ROLLED UP BY THE BUCKEYES

Columbus, Ohio, November 9.—The democrats are now claiming the election of the whole state democratic ticket, from Governor Harmon down, with the possible exception of Attorney General Denman.

In consequence, Senator Charles Dick, republican, wil be succeeded in 1911 by a democrat.

Harmon's plurality over Warren G. Harding, republican, is still in doubt this morning, but sufficient returns are in to show that it is the largest ever given by Ohio to a democrat. The latest estimates give Harmon a margin of 60,000 over Harding.

With eleven assembly districts in doubt returns received this morning indicate that the democrats will have 69 seats in the house and 17 in the senate.

The total of 86 is nine more than the number required to select a United States senator to succeed Charles Dick.

PANAMA EXPOSITION BONDS ARE VOTED BY LOUISIANA

New Orleans, November 9.—There is great rejoicing in New Orleans today over the result of yesterday's election. With the adoption of the constitutional amendments, providing for a bond issupe of $6,500,000 for the Panama canal exposition project, and the election of a democratic national house of representatives, there is a feeling that congress will indorse this city as the logical site for the proposed international exposition to commemorate the opening of the Panama canal in 1915.

The exposition bonds were voted by a majority of about 4 to 1. With private subscriptions totaling more than a million dollars already in hand, the local exposition boosters will appear before congress with no less than eight millions of dollars pledged to the support of the proposed big show. It is expected that this amount will be increased to ten million dollars within the next two months.

All of the proposed fifteen amendments to the constitution were adopted.

Acadia parish voted in favor of licensing saloons.

WASHINGTON REPUBLICAN AND ALSO VERY "DRY"

Seattle, Wash., November 9.—The republicans of Washington won a sweeping victory in yesterday's election, choosing five supreme justices by a plurality of about 50,000 and electing all three congressmen, William E. Humphrey, Stanton Warburton and William L. La Follette. The republican majority in the legislature will be more than 100, insuring the election of Miles Poindexter as United States senator.

A woman suffrage amendment to the state constitution seems to have carried by a majority of 2 to 1, this ratio being maintained in Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane and various eastern and western Washington counties.

An unexpected result of the election was the success of the "dry" faction in local option elections in all parts of the state. The saloons were voted out in Everett and Bellingham, cities of more than 20,000 inhabitants and in many other important municipalities.

CLEAN SWEEP IS MADE BY DEMOCRATS OF CHICAGO

Chicago, November 9.—The results of yesterday's election in Illinois and Chicago furnished one of the greatest surprises in the entire country. Although pictured as in the best shape of any state in the middle west, from the republican standpoint, nowhere was the democratic landslide more pronounced.

The democarts made a clean sweep in Cook county, and for the first time in fourteen years they reign supreme here. Withpluralities ranging from 15,000 to 25,000 the democrats captured the offices of sheriff, county treasurer, county clerk, probate judge, county judge, and, in fact, every county office.

The republican president and members of the sanitary district board met defeat in the general democartic cleanup. For the first time in its history a democratic member was elected to the board of review. Local republican leaders were staggered by the results. They had predicted election of their entire county ticket with pluralities varying from 30,000 to 45,000.

Aside from the actual conquest of county offices, the election was immensely important to the democrats as indicating their chances of electing a mayor of Chicago next spring.

Stuart Beaten by Slemp.

Roanoke, Va., November 9.—Henry C. Stuart, democrat, concedes his defeat for congress in the ninth Virginia district by Bascom Slemp, republican, by a majority of 150, basing his statement on figures at hand. Mr. Stuart's friends do not concede his defeat. The figures show a democratic gain of 4,000.

Shafroth is Re-Elected.

Denver, Colo., November 9.—With about 30 per cent of the precincts of Denver and the state-at-large heard from, The Times (independent) this afternoon asserts that Governor Shafroth (democrat) is re-elected by from 8,000 to 10,000 and carried with him the entire state ticket.

MARKED GAINS ARE SHOWN IN THE SOCIALIST VOTE

New York, November 9.—Marked gains in the socialist vote throughout the state are shown in the returns from yesterday's election. Figures available tonight indicate a total vote for Charles Edward Russell, nominee for governor, of 65,000, which is nearly double the 33,994 votes of 1908. In New York city Russell received 27,230.

Most significant, however, are the increases up-state. Sixty-five cities that gave a vote of 7,850 two years ago, show 28,000 this year.

In some intsances the increases are as high as 500 per cent.

Legislature in Doubt.

Helena, Mont., November 9.—Both Chairmen Waite, of the republican, and Stewart, of the democratic committee, claim the legislature on joint ballot. Waite says the republicans will have 54 votes sure, with indications of 56, while Stewart gives the republicans only 44. It requires 52 votes to elect a senator. Should it result in a tie, the lieutenant governor, Allen, a republican, would cast the deciding vote. Returns are coming in slowly.

Democrat Leads in Oregon.

Portland, Ore., November 9.—Complete returns from 267 out of 967 precincts in the state-at-large and incomplete returns from 87 precincts, give Oswald West, democratic nominee for governor, a lead of 1,072 over Jay Bowerman, republican.

Nixon Wins in Nevada.

Reno, Nev., November 9.—Incomplete returns from all over Nevada show that United States Senator George Nixon has been indorsed for re-election.

E. E. Roberts, republican, was elected to congress over Charles S. Sprague, democrat, by a small majority.

Tasker L. Oddie has defeated Denver S. Dickerson, democrat, for governor, by a large plurality.

Official Count Needed.

Jefferson City, Mo., November 9.—Governor Hadley tonight received a report that Holmes Hall, a republican, had carried the seventh Missouri congressional district over Courtney W. Hamlin, democrat, by a majority of 25 votes. It will probably require the official count to decide the winner.

Atlanta, Ga., November 8, 1910.—Sewer, Paving and Material Contractors: Sealed proposals addressed to the mayor will be received by the mayor's secretary for the following work:

1—New bids on the Proctor Creek Disposal Plant, one on plans as originally drawn; another eliminating the one-half-acre section of the sprinkling filter.

2—Bids on approximately six thousand barrels of Portland Cement to be delivered on the line of the Proctor Creek Intercepting Sewer in carload lots, at such points as may be designated by the engineer in charge of the work as needed.

The above bids to be received not later than 10 a. m., Monday, November 21, 1910.

3—Bids for Paving Peters street, from Forsyth street to Madison avenue, with creosoted wood blocks, approximately two thousand five hundred square yards. All bids to be received not later than 3 p. m., Friday, November 10, 1910.

Specifications for the above work will be furnished on application to the city engineer.
